NO DECISION ON ARABIC IN SIGHT

Wilson Receives Intimation German Message Will "Satisfy"

Gerard, in Berlin, Formally Asks for Report On Case

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. — President Wilson has been informed unofficially from sources close to Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that the next communication from Berlin on the sinking of the White Star Liner Arabic will be of a character satisfactory to the United States.

Coming close on the telegram which the ambassador forwarded to the State Department yesterday by direction of his government declaring it was not the intention of Germany that any American lives should be sacrificed in the sinking of the ship, this development was regarded as indicating that Germany would make some proposal satisfactory to the United States respecting submarine attacks on vessels purely of a passenger-carrying nature.

Officials are at a loss to conjecture what the German government will propose, but the assurance that there is every desire in Berlin to avoid a break with the United States has relieved the situation very much.

EXPECT NEW PROPOSAL.

Heretofore Germany has contended that neutral lives could not insure belligerent ships against attack, especially those carrying munitions. In its reply to the first Lusitania note Germany proposed to designate certain ships which would be guaranteed against attack, but the American government flatly rejected that proposal. Officials were eager to know what position Germany would now take with surrendering her continued right to submarine warfare against enemy commerce. The aim of President Wilson and all administration officials to avoid a rupture with Germany, but to do so without any surrender of the neutral rights for which the United States has been contending in the name of international law and humanity, was reflected by officials informally while discussing this latest phase of the situation.

They were hopeful that a disavowal of the submarine commander's act in sinking the Arabic without warning would be forthcoming, but the administration is ready to listen to Berlin's next word.

GRARD CALLS ON JAGOW

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 25, 4:45 p. m.—The American ambassador, James W. Gerard, called on Foreign Minister von Jagow last evening and asked for information concerning the sinking of the steamship Arabic.

Mr. Gerard learned that the government had no official news whatever on this subject.

ENVOY WAITS SUMMONS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, remained in seclusion here today, with his plans for the next few days undeveloped. He had received no further advices from Berlin bearing on the sinking of the Arabic, he said, and did not know when such word would be received.

It was within the range of possibility, the ambassador said, that he would go to Washington to confer with Secretary Lansing before receiving further word from Berlin, but this would be, if at all, upon Secretary Lansing's invitation.

French Aviator Sinks Ship

By Associated Press

PARIS, Aug. 25, 2:40 p. m.—A French official report on fighting in the Dardanelles between August 20th and the morning of August 25th relates that the British left wing has made progress against the Turks, occupying 800 yards of Turkish trenches in the northern zone of the fighting, and that a French aviator on August 20th was successful in sending to the bottom a large Turkish transport. The statement as given out by the French war office this afternoon follows:

"The period of five days since the issuing of the last communication on the Dardanelles has been marked in the northern zone by further progress on the part of the British left wing. These British troops have occupied 800 yards of enemy trenches.

"During the night of August 23-24 a French company was successful in a surprise attack on a Turkish position used by the enemy for listening purposes. In the morning of August 25th a detachment of Turkish soldiers endeavored to reoccupy this position, but they were repulsed.

"On August 20th our squadron bombarded with success a point of debarkment at Acbachiliman, on the European side of the strait, to the north of Nagara. In spite of the violent fire of numerous hostile batteries, one of our aviators was successful in sinking, at its anchorage, a large Turkish transport."

BALKANS NEAR TO DECISION

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Aug. 25, 12:10 p. m.—The Balkan States are unquestionably nearer determination of their future relations with warring powers, but so far as has announced officially no definite steps have been taken in the direction of revival of the Balkan League and its adhesion to the cause of the entente allies. There was no confirmation today of various rumors which excited London yesterday, chief of which were reports that Bulgaria had declared war against Turkey and would assist in the attempt to force the Dardanelles.

The English press characterizes unofficially German explanations of the sinking of the Arabic as inadequate, but interprets efforts to explain as evidence of Germany's realization that her relations with the United States have reached a serious stage.

The furious efforts of the Austro German armies along the eastern front in the last twenty-four hours have not been so fruitful as usual in respect to territory gained, which is taken to mean that they have now reached the dreaded swamp regions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The fight of E. E. Clemens Horst has carried on his negotiations with the state department through Senator Phelan. E. Clemens Horst has insisted his brother is an American citizen. The British government has presented affidavits to show that Louis Horst registered in London as a German citizen; furthermore, some years ago he accepted the title of baron from a German princeling.

TAFT HITS HARD AT SUNDAY

Evangelist Is Called Ephemeral By Ex-President

Is Greeted at Mole in Oakland Upon His Arrival

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—"An ephemeral manifestation of religious excitement." That's Billy Sunday.

Former President William Howard Taft placed the brand on the evangelist before the Unitarian Association's general conference today when, in a general discussion of religion, he took occasion to mention "a certain well-known evangelist," whose attacks on the Unitarian Church he scored vigorously. Although the former president did not once mention Sunday by name, his meaning was made clear in several phrases that left no room for doubt as to the purport of his remarks.

The former president deprecated any movement to oppose Sunday's attacks on the Unitarian Church, however, declaring that there was no common ground for argument, and that "on mere epithetical assaults we have restraints that would put us to great disadvantage."

Taft's address opened the twenty-sixth biennial general conference of the Unitarian and other Christian Churches.

He proclaimed religion as an essential in man's life, and his relations to the state, and lauded the Unitarian creed as one compatible with free scientific inquiry. On the firing line of active missionary service, said the ex-president, advocates of sterner creeds become broadened and liberalized. He spoke at length on the phases of creeds and on their influences on the world.

"The necessity for the infusion of the religious spirit into the prevailing morality of the purpose of giving it life and persistent influence is a fact that every one who studies the life of a people from the standpoint of a responsible administrator of government must recognize." he said. "The study of man's relations to his creator and his responsibility for his life to God energizes his moral inclinations strengthens his self-sacrifice and restraint, prompts his sense of paternal obligation to his fellow men and makes him the good citizen without whom popular government would be failure."

Mr. Taft traced the spread of religious tolerance from the Middle Ages when he said there was none, to the present time, where he found "evangelical churches growing more liberal." Unitarians, he said, "deny that they lose the essense of Christianity when they give up miracles, the Virgin birth and a special divinity of Jesus. They have always emphasized the life of Jesus in his teaching of love as the foundation of all things spiritual and the motive and end of the Kingdom of God."

LIBERALIZED CHURCHES.

These views, he said, had "liberalized the attitude of many evangelical churches." That the Young Men's Christian Association directors must be of orthodox faith did not trouble him, he said, because the "whole administration is now so catholic and liberal and world-wide in its usefulness."

Mr. Taft expressed belief that the good done by the evangelist whom he discussed was neutralized by "the detrimental attacks he delivers against ministers of all faiths, "nor," he continued, "can a coarseness of speech, a vulgarity of illustration, a shocking irreverence, be justified as a necessary means of reaching the hearts and fastening the attention of an audience of persons however untutored or unrefined." The late Dwight L. Moody, he said, made effective appeal to the plain people "in the language of the Psalmist and the prophets."

DISCUSSES SUNDAY.

Taft discussed Sunday as follows:

"During the last two or three years we have witnessed the work of a revivalist who has spoken to thousands and thousands and aroused many to a profession of orthodox faith and conversion to a better life. It is said that the good he has done in cities which he has visited is evidenced by the permanent betterment of their moral tone. I am not prepared to deny that he has stirred many to more useful lives, but I venture to think that the good he has done has been neutralized by the detrimental attacks he delivers against ministers of all faith. There is great danger in the growing lack of respect for authority, based on character, intellect, office and experience, and an uplifting movement finding its chief attraction in confirming that lack of respect cannot be permanently useful.

"Nor can a coarseness of speech, a vulgarity of illustrations, a shocking irreverence, be justified as a necessary means of reaching the hearts and fastening the attention of an audience of persons, however untutored or unrefined. There is a difference between such a style and the simplicity of language and homeliness of illustrations and the force of direct appeal to the plain people like that which Moody used with great power and effect.

"Moody spoke in the language of the Psalmist and the Prophets, and the Sermon on the Mount. It would be difficult to find anything in common between these two fountains of language, pure and undefiled, and the slangy aphorisms and violent epithets reported to have fallen from the lips of this latest revivalist.

AGE LOVES DENUNCIATION.

"We live in an age when the vogue is to love denunciation of something or somebody. It seems to exalt the speaker and gratify his audience by the subtle impressions that such diatribes are a compliment to these he is addressing. These imply that the audiences are much better than those whom he is attacking, and the higher the mark of his aim, the greater the compliment.

"He is thus summoning his hear-

Freedom of Seas, Peace Condition

German Socialists Also Denounce Conquest

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Aug. 25, via London, 11:30 a. m.—The Socialist newspapers publish the results of conferences by the party's Reichstag members and members of the party concerning the Socialists' peace aims, and summarize these aims as follows:

Peace must be a permanent one, leading the European nations to closer relations.

Germany's opponents must not be permitted to acquire any German territory.

Most favored nation clauses should be introduced into peace treaties with all belligerents.

Tariff walls should be removed.

So far as possible freedom of the seas should be established, the right of capture should be abolished, and narrows important for the world's commerce should be internationalized.

Austria and Turkey must not be weakened.

Annexation of foreign territories violates the rights of people to self rule and weakens internal strength and harmony of the German nation; therefore we oppose all plans of this sort of short-sighted politicians favoring conquest.

Finally the party demands the establishment of an international court to which all further conflicts of nations may be submitted.

RUEF'S 'EXILE' IS OF OWN ASKING

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 25.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson today in commenting upon the paroling of Abraham Ruef from the San Quentin state prison, made it plain that the former San Francisco grafter was not "exiled" to Mendocino county by the board of prison directors, but at his own request designated that county as his place of residence. The governor said:

"For two years past it has been repeatedly stated that Ruef will be treated exactly like every other man in state prison—neither more leniently nor more harshly.

"The prison directors, notwithstanding the agitation in his behalf, required him, as they required all others, except in extraordinary cases, to serve half his net sentence. He served half his net sentence and then was paroled.

"San Francisco newspapers have endeavored to make it appear that he has been 'exiled' to Mendocino county. The prison directors merely complied with Ruef's request that his residence be made Mendocino county.

"The only comment I would make on the parole is that, despite pressure beyond description, the majority of the prison directors have demonstrated that they will treat all who may be confined by the state with absolute impartiality and the same rules be applicable alike to Ruef and the weakest and least known prisoner."

Woman Shoots at Burglars in Flight

WARM SPRINGS, Aug. 25. — Jumping out of a bedroom window in her night gown, firing a revolver and screaming, Mrs. M. T. Azevedo last night scared away two burglars who had entered her home and commenced ransacking the place in the absence of her husband, a local groceryman.

About midnight Mrs. Azevedo and her sister were awakened by a noise in the pantry. Without hesitation, Mrs. Azevedo procured a revolver and climbed out of the window, firing several times. The shots awoke neighbors, but the intruders made good their escape.

It is believed the burglars are members of a gang which has infested that part of the county recently.

Probation for Lad Who "Murdered" Dog

Miss Cullin wanted him arrested on a charge of murder, but the courts compromised on a charge of disturbing the peace.

BUDGET CUT STARTS IN COUNCIL

Paring Starts on Heels of Talk of Recall Movement

"Don't Care What They Do," Says Mayor Davie

Following on the heels of the announcement that the recall move against Commissioners Anderson and Baccus had been abandoned in order that a recall election against the entire council, new members and old alike, may be called in January, members of that body last night began to slice and pare the budget estimates with the object in view of fixing this year's tax rate at $1.75 on the $100 valuation.

Extensive cuts in salary and other appropriations are being considered at meetings being held today by Commissioners Edwards and Jackson and Mayor John L. Davie. The officials are confronted with the task of taking 21 cents from the rate of $1.96, as it stood when Commissioner Edwards a week ago submitted a budget estimate which was tentatively agreed upon. Edwards' estimates at that time had been cut down to such a thin edge that no moneys were provided for many needed betterments.

C. Stuart McMullan, the city's revenue expert, is sitting in conference with the mayor and commissioners and assisting in their task of paring the budget estimates. Both Mayor Davie and Commissioner Edwards declined to state what estimates would be made to suffer the most. Edwards said, however, that a considerable cut was being considered in the salary appropriation estimate. Salary warrants now paid by the city amount to more than $100,000 a month, or over $1,250,000 annually.

TO CUT SALARIES.

"I have discovered," Edwards said this morning, "that the salary pay roll estimates have been grossly padded. Many little tricks have been perpetrated by the heads of departments in efforts to increase their appropriations. The council is considering a material decrease in the salary estimate for the year. Other estimates, which I will not mention now, are also being considered for reductions which will be material."

"I am convinced," said Mayor Davie, "that we can run this city just as well, and better, on the $1.75 tax rate than it was run by the old administration under a tax rate of $1.98. I am in favor of reducing the rate to that figure, and will fight for it when the budget is brought into council tomorrow morning for official and final action. We can run the city properly on this rate. Leave it to me. The salary roll of this city is mighty top-heavy, and we're going to cut it down."

The mayor was then requested to answer the charges of his erstwhile friends and supporters, the members of the Taxpayers' League, who are now threatening to seek the recall of the entire council.

"You know how much I care about the recall," he said. "I

Claim to Way Estate Lost by Wife No. 3

OAKLAND MAN MADE DEFENDANT IN ALIENATION SUIT FILED TODAY

Ace R. Braddock, Oakland realty man, was made defendant today in a sensational suit asking damages for the alleged alienation of the affections of 19-year-old Mrs. Millie Butler, wife of C. R. Butler, a prominent merchant of Santa Rosa and one-time intimate friend of Braddock. Butler asks $10,000 damages.

Back of the suit which was placed on file in the Superior Court here today, is the charge of Mrs. Butler that Braddock attacked her at her home during her husband's absence.

According to associates of Attorney A. H. Davis, counsel for Butler, the alleged attack took place when Mrs. Butler resented insulting remarks which Braddock is said to have made to her while he was waiting for Butler to return home.

Mrs. Butler, it is said, first met her husband about a year ago when he engaged her as a housekeeper, following the death of his first wife. So faithfully did she care for Butler's three children, say his friends, that he fell in love with her and they were married.

According to attaches of Attorney Davis' office, Mrs. Butler feared to tell her husband of the alleged attack upon her by Braddock, but confided it later to her sister-in-law. It was she, they say, who broke the news to Butler.

At first, they say, Butler was inclined to doubt his wife's story and considered divorce proceedings, but his attorney is said to have convinced him that his suspicions were wrong, and the suit for damages for alleged alienation of affections followed.

War Summary

Further advances by the forces of the entente allies in the Dardanelles are reported by the French war department, the British left wing having occupied 800 yards of Turkish trenches. A large Turkish transport was sunk by a French aviator on August 20, the official transport says.

German troops have broken through the Russian advanced positions southwest of the fortress of Brest-Litovsk, according to today's German official statement. A movement of parts of General von Linsingen's army northward along the eastward bank of the Bug toward the fortress also is reported.

The armies of Prince Leopold of Bavaria coming from the east encountered stiff opposition but are pressing on through the Bialowieska forest regions. The army groups further to the north also are making progress.

The Germans claim the recapture of sections in the Vosges, near Sondernach, that were taken by the French last week.

Ambassador Gerard in Berlin called on the German foreign minister and learned that the German government had no official news on the sinking of the liner Arabic.

A Russian aeroplane squadron bombarded the Asiatic suburbs of Constantinople on Monday, forty-one persons being killed or injured, according to a news agency dispatch from Athens.

Bombs were dropped last night by a hostile aviator on the German town of Offenburg, outside the war zone, injuring twelve civilians, Berlin reports.

The sinking of another British trawler in the course of German submarine operations is recorded.

In an air attack on German lines of communication a French aviator dropped bombs on the railroad station at Lorrach, southwest of Friborg, the Paris war office says. Only minor operations are reported along the firing front.

No German dreadnaughts nor cruisers were sunk in the recent action in the gulf of Riga, it is semi-officially stated in Berlin. Neither did the Germans attempt to land troops near Pernau, it is declared.

Report Ship Striking Mine and Sinking

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The steamer Nieuwamsterdam arrived today from Rotterdam after having taken on board passengers and mails at Falmouth, England. Officers said the Nieuwamsterdam was held up in the Downs several hours while British mine sweepers cleared the channel of German mines. They added a steamer preceding them struck a mine and sunk. Among the passengers was A. Piatt Andrew, former assistant secretary of the United States Treasury, who for the last eight months has been in France as inspector general of the American ambulance corps. Mr. Andrew said he would remain here about two weeks and would then take back with him 25 additional ambulance drivers.

"We now have 140 ambulances in active service in France," said Mr. Andrew. "In Alsace the American ambulances are the only ones in operation. We have 30 machines there. In the district between Fecht and Bassant, a mountainous section, we have taken over the work formerly handled by the French with mule carried stretchers."

Mr. Andrew confirmed previous reports that the American ambulance headquarters at Pont-A-Mousson had been shelled by Germans on July 22.

pedoing false statements appeared regarding the incident. Similar statements are beginning to be hinted at in case of the Arabic, which are equally untrue. For this reason we thought you would like to have one or two definite facts that had better be published at once in order to prevent people from hazarding opinions and finding excuses for the torpedoing.

"The facts are:

"There is no doubt the Arabic was struck with a torpedo. Captain Finch did not see the submarine, but undoubtedly saw the torpedo.

"There is no question of the Arabic having tried to ram the submarine, because it was not seen from the bridge.

"There is no question of the Arabic having tried to escape, except the very proper caution of having put the helm hard over when they saw the torpedo.

"The Arabic was undoubtedly sunk without warning. She was in peaceful trading with various nationalities aboard. She was outward bound, so there is no question of munitions, and she was not disguised in any way nor had she any guns mounted.

"The statement has appeared in the press that she was off the south coast of Ireland, which leads some people to think she was near the coast. As a matter of fact, she was over sixty miles south of Ireland.

"With respect to precautions taken, these were very thorough and very proper, having regard to all that has taken place in the danger zone. The captain had life jackets on hand for everybody. Rafts were unlashed and deck lifeboats opened up, and both rafts and deck lifeboats played an important part in life saving as well as the regular lifeboats."

BERLIN, Aug. 25, by wireless to Tuckerton.—The Overseas News Agency says:

"In naval circles it is stated that no official report has yet arrived concerning the sinking of the steamship Arabic and that judgment will be reserved until that time. In any event, the Arabic was a British ship, within the war zone, and was on the way to obtain another cargo of war material. She carried a large amount of gold in payment of war supplies.

"The German press has received the news of the sinking of the Arabic very quietly and refrains from comment, merely pointing out that press reports from British sources are not clear and that it is questionable whether a torpedo or a mine sank the ship. These dispatches do not mention the exact time or place of the incident."

PERRY, Ia., Aug. 25.—Harry Crispin, aged 24, a farm hand residing five miles of here, last night shot and killed his wife, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Stiner, and then took his own life with a shotgun. Jealousy of his wife, which led to a quarrel, in which all three participated, is said to have been the cause of Crispin's act.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 25, via London, 2:37 p. m.—Another protest has been made to the German government by Sweden. TURKS CONFIDENT OF HOLDING STRAIT

Allies Cannot Move Beyond Ship Range, Von Sanders, Pasha, Says.

By Associated Press.

TURKISH HEADQUARTERS ON THE GALLIPOLI PENINSULA, Monday, Aug. 23, via London, Aug. 25.—Absolute confidence in the Turkish troops and their ability to hold the peninsula, even should other allied reinforcements arrive, were expressed today by the commander of the Fifth army, Field Marshal Liman von Sanders Pasha, in an interview with the Associated Press.

Field Marshal von Sanders' remarks were punctuated by the crashing near by of exploding shells. His praise of the Turkish soldier was unstinted.

"Bravery and frugality and physical and mental stamina," said the Pasha, "make the Turk an antagonist really to be feared, as our enemies already have discovered. As a result, we are able to face the future without misgiving, even should the enemy increase."

The Pasha then spoke of his efforts in perfecting the organization of the Turks.

"The Gallipoli forces are better off in that respect than you suppose," he said. "At the first glance the machine here may look somewhat cumbersome, but such is not the case. Owing to our excellent officers we have the means necessary to carry on operations in a most modern manner. This and the fact that the Turk is really fighting for an ideal—defense of country, race and religion—make the task of allies what it has been."

Field Marshal von Sanders Pasha is very popular with the Turkish officers and men, despite the fact that he is a strict disciplinarian. He interests himself personally in the welfare of the men, insisting upon ample supplies of good food and an efficient sanitary service. This has endeared him to the Turkish soldier, to whom he is known simply as the Pasha. His appearance at the front invariably is the occasion for an ovation.

The Pasha is a man of unusual physical vigor. He works generally eighteen hours a day, spending more than half of this time visiting the positions.

"The allies," the Pasha continued, "have been here four months less three days. During that time they have accomplished only what their preponderance in naval artillery made it impossible for us to prevent. Unfortunately, Turkey has no navy powerful enough to discount that, but that also means the allies are unable to operate successfully beyond the reach of their ships' gunfire.

"What ground the allies have they hold by virtue of their naval gunfire superiority. Let the allies go beyond the range of their guns and their troops depend entirely upon themselves, and they will discover what real war is upon the peninsula. I repeat that we have every reason for viewing the future without worry."

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

FRENCH

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 25, 2:40 p. m.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities reading as follows:

"In Artois last night throughout the entire sector to the north of Arras the artillery fighting was of a fairly spirited nature. Furthermore, there were engagements with hand grenades in the vicinity of Souchez and Neuville. Around Roye and in the neighborhood of Lassigny the artillery exchanges yesterday and last night continued actively.

"From the Champagne district and the Argonne the only reports received refer to fighting in which mines were exploded.

"In the Vosges there were yesterday engagements with hand grenades on the Barrenkoft.

"A French aviator last night threw down bombs on the railroad station at Lorrain in the Grand Duchy of Baden, twenty-eight miles to the southwest of Friborg."

JURY FAILS TO AGREE IN TRIAL FOR ASSAULT

After being out all night, the jury in the trial of Arthur A. Sutherland, accused of assault with a deadly weapon upon Policeman R. H. Lohsen in West Oakland two months ago, failed to agree. The defendant will be tried again. Officer Lohsen was called into the Sutherland home by Sutherland's son during a domestic quarrel and was refused admission. Sutherland fired at him and the officer returned the shots, wounding him.

"Laid Down to U. R. R.," Rolph Says of Long

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Bitterly declaring that City Attorney Percy V. Long had "laid down to the United Railroads," and that Matt I. Sullivan had not defended the city the municipal cars would now be off Market street, Mayor James Rolph, Jr., today launched a spirited attack against the city's official legal adviser. The trouble came as the culmination of feeling that has existed ever since Sullivan was placed on the United Railroads injunction suit by the mayor.

At the time the case came before Judge Sturtevant, Long did not ask a change of judges, although it was known that Sturtevant was once the attorney for the United Railroads. When the case went against Long the mayor called in Sullivan and Long was ignored.

"If Long had made a proper effort to keep the city's case going we would have been out of all this row," said the mayor. "If Sullivan wasn't in the case we would not have cars on Market street now." Hearing was again continued today.

COUNCIL IS PARING BUDGET ESTIMATES

Mayor Davie Denies Charges of Taxpayers' League, in Statement.

was shoved into this office, and, as far as I am personally concerned, I don't care what they do. I never made a promise or a pledge during or after the campaign.

"I and other members are charged with providing jobs and large salaries for various members of one or more families. That is untrue.

"The charge that we have increased the pay roll $10,000 annually is also untrue. We are endeavoring in every way to decrease the pay roll.

"FRIENDLY TO COMMISSION."

"It is also untrue that I have attacked the civil service commission. Nothing of the kind. The members of that board and myself are co-operating in every way. I have never said anything against the civil service commission."

"Is it not a fact, mayor, that you several weeks ago declared that if you had four votes in the council you'd 'fire' every member of the Civil Service Commission?" he was asked.

"No, I made no such statement," he replied. "As to the question of permitting religious questions to enter into my work and actions as mayor, there is no foundation for that accusation. None of my appointments will show this. I have made but two appointments—that of my secretary, Preston Higgins, and my son as temporary chauffeur."

"Could that charge refer to your announced intention of having the painting of the padre removed from your office walls?" the question was asked.

"No, I was never interviewed on that subject.

"They charge that we have put no reforms into effect. Give us time. How about the gambling houses and the lottery joints? Haven't we closed them all?

"I also deny that good men have been thrown out of office and the places filled by inefficient men. All appointees of this administration are efficient.

"I couldn't take any part in the recall of Commissioners Anderson and Baccus, because I am a city official. Under the law I could not interfere in any way, shape or form."

LEAGUE SECRETARY TALKS.

John Somers, who is secretary of the Taxpayers' League also had something to say today regarding the present administration trouble.

"Mayor Davie is accredited with saying," Somers declared, "that he wanted nothing more to do with the Taxpayers' League. Well, he'll never be given the chance. Mayor Davie owes his election to the Taxpayers' League, and it was understood that he would adopt the league's reform policies. In this respect he has failed to make good on several counts.

"The municipal offices are filled with inefficient clerks and underlings. The league was responsible for Davie's election, but it will not be responsible for keeping men in office who are unfair to the people. Mayor Davie has done nothing toward keeping his promise of reducing the tax rate to $1 on the $100 valuation."

"I never made mention of a dollar tax rate," the mayor said in answer to this statement. "How could I? Why, the tax rate includes 60 cents for the bond redemption fund alone."

"This is the first time I've heard anything about a reduction in the tax rate to $1.75," Commissioner Baccus said this morning. "I haven't been called in on any conferences to discuss the budget. I guess they're going to suit themselves about this matter. Well, I'd like to see how they're going to do it."

Ex-President Opens Church Conference With Brief Address.

ers into the judgment seat, and clothing them with the dignity and power of judges. He has deemed it necessary to denounce members of the Unitarian faith and with certainty and emphasis he consigns them to a hell he finds necessary for the disposition of them and other enemies of society.

"Some of our Unitarian brethren have thought it would be well to organize meetings and a movement to resist this attack upon our church and our faith.

AGAINST ATTACK.

"I deprecate any such effort. In the first place, his mandate is not likely to affect our future state; in the second place, his prophecy is not of such formidable authority as to influence others not to become Unitarians; in the third place we could find no common ground for reasonable discussion of any issue between us, if the radically differing points of view could be reduced and formulated into discussible issues; and in the fourth place, in mere epithetical assault we have restraints upon us that would put us at a great disadvantage; and finally such an organized effort would dignify an attack that is perfectly harmless. Revivals of this kind cannot permanently affect the religious and moral progress of the country. Individual instances of good results will doubtless occur and persist, but in the whole they are to be treated as an ephemeral manifestation of religious excitement, in a muckraking period now passing, which in the coming decade will seem bubbles in retrospect."

Stepping from the Shasta Limited at the Oakland Mole last night to find a large waiting delegation, prepared to rush him across the bay to the Exposition, oratory and a program of hurried and varied events, William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, embarked on a program of events more strenuous than even those Theodore Roosevelt used to enjoy.

From the time he left the train at Oakland he was the center of a whirl of congratulations, questions by newspaper men and invitations to banquets, luncheons and meetings. Tonight he is to be the speaker at the Bar Association Meeting at the Palace Hotel. He will speak at the Commonwealth Club, conference, over which he is to preside, the American University Association, and has also accepted several other invitations. He expects to inspect the fair from top to bottom.

GROWN LESS CORPULENT.

The former standard bearer of the Republican party is more active and less corpulent than of old. He was ready to talk politics, Commerce—but not war. He says that the Progressive party is "oozing out." He says that it would be impossible at this time to venture a prediction on the next presidential election. He declares that he is a protectionist, and he also says that he war has given America protection, nullifying the otherwise bad effects of the Democratic tariff on American commerce.

The former president was greeted with military and civil honors on his arrival in San Francisco shortly after 7 o'clock last night.

Mayor Rolph was the first to greet Judge Taft as he stepped from the ferry-boat which bore him from the Oakland mole. With the mayor were C. C. Moore, William H. Crocker, Lieutenant Commander Woodward, U. S. N., and Dr. U G. B. Pierce, Judge Taft's former pastor at the Unitarian Church of Washington, D. C.

NO WAR STATEMENTS.

"I had rather not make any statement on the Arabic," he said. "It is a critical situation, and involves a quantity of previous diplomatic correspondence."

"What about our preparedness for war?" he was asked.

The Taft smile vanished, and his tone became grave.

"I am most heartily in favor of preparation," he declared with emphasis. "While our situation is not so hopeless as it has been pictured in some instances, we should take immediate steps toward safeguarding the nation."

Victory would have been assured for the Republican party in 1916 except for the European war, Judge Taft declared.

WAR AFFECTS POLITICS.

"The war has affected the relation of the present administration to the people, just as wars always effect administrations," said Judge Taft. "In this case it saved the administration from what would have followed but for the war.

"It prevented the normal, natural effect of the tariff, giving the administration a protection that the tariff would not have given."

The Progressive party is dying a natural death, according to Judge Taft, thereby strengthening the Republican party.

"Whom do you consider the most likely Republican candidate in 1916?"

"Don't ask me," responded the Taft smile at its broadest. "I'm not a prophet."

Judge Taft will remain on the Pacific coast until September 19.

Unitarian Delegates Open General Session

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Business sessions began this morning in the American Unitarian Association General Conference, when, with President Taft delivering the opening address, the session was fairly launched. The ex-president of the United States and president of the Unitarian conference presided throughout the morning session, relinquishing his gavel in the afternoon to fill another engagement. The hall was crowded from door to door.

Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, D. D., president of the American Unitarian Association, and son of the president of Harvard University, was the opening speaker at last night's session of the general conference, at the First Unitarian church.

Speaking of the rich inheritance of Unitarians in San Francisco, Dr. Eliot touched on the inspiring memories of Thomas Starr King and Horatio Stebbins, both former pastors of the church in which the conference is being held. He defined the Unitarians as the "pioneers of the Christian army."

"The ministry is no place for those who fear incurring risks," declared Dr. Eliot, "or for those who seek ease and personal comfort, but for those who love adventure and who are eager to follow truth wherever it leads."

On Thursday evening, August 26, an overflow meeting will be held in the First Unitarian church of Oakland, under the auspices of the general conference, for the benefit of the large Unitarian population on the east side of the bay. The speakers will be Rev. Albert R. Vail, Urbana, Ill.; Rev. John Haynes Holmes, New York; Rev. Samuel M. Crother, D. D., Cambridge.

NEW TUBERCULAR THEORY

SERUM PLAN IS DISCOUNTED

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Dr. Louis Renon, a physician connected with the Necker hospital and a member of the medical faculty of the University of Paris, has announced to the Therapeutic Society that he is able to prove that tuberculosis, contrary to the general accepted theory, must be treated by chemical means and not by serums.

Dr. Renon says that his researches have been directed towards finding a substance which will kill bacilli in an animal organization without injuring the elements of that organization. He established a list of antiseptics which arrest the development of bacilli in cultures. He also found substances without which bacilli cannot develop. These, he says, are potassium, sulphur, phosphate, iron and magnesium.

Thus, he claims, therapeutic action can be obtained by adding certain substances to an animal organism and also by withdrawing means of dietary other substances necessary to the growth of bacilli.

OAKLAND MAN BOUND FOR CENTER OF WAR

Ray Baker to Return to Duty in Russian Capital; Marvels at Home City

A war correspondent would see a change for fame and riches and the adventurous spirit, who yearns for the opportunity to be in the thick of Europe's war while terrible history is in the making, would have his longing gratified could he possess the passports and the influence that will go with Ray Baker, an Oakland man, who will leave Monday for Petrograd. Mr. Baker is secretary to George T. Marye, American ambassador to Russia, and is returning after a sojourn in this country since June.

It is not only what he is to see, but what he has already seen and heard, that makes Baker one of the few who are "on the inside" on the big war. In years to come, when diplomatic restrictions takes the seals off of lips, it will be from such men that the authentic volumes on the world's greatest war will be written. But not until those restrictions are removed will Mr. Baker talk.

The Oakland man was in Petrograd when the great war broke out. It was in June of this year that he arrived in Washington, and during his stay found time to visit his old home after an absence of a dozen years. He left Petrograd on business; he goes back on business, and he has been busy all the time he has been here.

While there are locked up in this modest, courteous and fine-appearing Oaklander facts and sidelights that much ache to be molded into type, Mr. Baker doesn't make the ache known. His enthusiasms are what the average citizen of the city takes as an accepted and even ordinary fact, the great growth and development of Oakland from a small city to a metropolis.

"I could hardly believe my eyes," said Baker, and it was, by the way, in reply to a question concerning the German approach to Petrograd, "when I walked down Broadway for the first time after my return. I used to know pretty nearly every man in the court house and up and down Broadway to the City Hall, and now when I walk those streets I scarcely know a soul. Those of Oakland who have not been away cannot appreciate, I presume, the wonderful steps the city has made."

TO VISIT WAR ZONE.

It is in Mr. Baker's itinerary to Petrograd that one of the greatest opportunities for first-hand knowledge given during the war will come to the Oakland man. He will leave New York for England and will then go to France. After that he will visit Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Rumania, Galicia and Russia.

"I do not know how long I will stay. I do not know when I will come back," he says, and if there is any wonderment in his diplomatic makeup as to the outcome of the present outstanding campaign that is said to have Petrograd as the objective, it would take a clairvoyant to discover it. By the time Baker reaches Russia the latest German drive may have failed or succeeded. The city may be filled with refugees or deserted of inhabitants. It is into the critical time of the city's existence that Mr. Baker is making his way.

FEELING IS FRIENDLY.

Concerning the feeling of the Russians toward the United States, Mr. Baker stated that a very friendly spirit was evinced. Russia, he said, affords many opportunities to the American manufacturer and to the American capitalist.

As to how the war affects the situation, he refused to make any comments. Likewise as to his mission here, why it was that he was sent post haste across the Atlantic and then back again, he was silent. A diplomat may be the most silent man in the world, and Mr. Baker is to the service born.

HAD VISIT WITH MOTHER.

"It has been pleasant to get back in Oakland," said Baker, getting again to the topic on which no censorship of duty obtains. "I have been visiting with my mother, Mrs. George W. Baker, and my sister-in-law, Mrs. Cleve Baker, in Piedmont.

"It has been my regret that my time has been so much taken up that it has been impossible for me to get around to renew old friendships. There are many for whom I have the deepest affection whom I have been unable to see.

"Before leaving I wish to express my delight in the growth of Oakland and in its wonderful improvements. It isn't so many years ago that I was a deputy county clerk under Frank C. Jordan, who, by the way, is one of the greatest men in California and, I think, in the West. I served also under Jack Cook, for whom I have the highest regard.

"I knew pretty nearly every man in the court house and up and down Broadway to the City Hall. Today when I walk down the street I scarcely know a soul. The people of Oakland may not appreciate it, but to one who has not been here in so many years it is amazing and remarkable—the building up of the city.

NOTES PROGRESS.

"The new City Hall compares to any in the country. It impressed me at once. Then there are the parks with their marvelous improvements and the large buildings up and down Broadway and Washington street. One may imagine how the average Oaklander would feel if he could awaken and find his city of today had grown in a night from the one I left in 1904. Such an experience would make for an appreciation like that which has come to me.

"I have been struck with the street improvements, their condition of cleanliness and with the fine schools and the playgrounds.

"Of one thing I had heard before I came, the police department. I was informed in Washington by Major Sylvester that it was one of the highest of standards. I am greatly impressed with the progress it has made."

LEAVES ON MONDAY.

Mr. Baker came to Oakland ten days ago. He came from Washington and it is there he will go before starting the return trip to Petrograd. In any other capacity, save that of a member of the diplomatic service, such a return as his is to be, through most of the warring nations, would be impossible. It is not to be any more of a sight-seeing trip than has his visit to America been a vacation. The Oakland diplomat has been very busy and he will enter upon work and surroundings in the center of a world's activities. Many correspondents have written of the visible conditions of England and France, where he will stop first, but none have gone with the prestige that will be his. In Switzerland, the peaceful island in a warring sea, he will stop, and then—what seldom happens—as a man from England and France, he will be received in Germany and Austria. Within a few weeks the man from Oakland will have been within both camps.

The present prominence of Rumania in the war's news gives a field of speculation as to his mission there, speculation which must remain such. Then it is Galicia, the well-worn battle ground, Russia and Petrograd.

INTEREST IN THE MAN.

Because he is in possession of so much of the real significance of the war and cannot give of any, the man himself becomes the more interesting. He has silently come from a cataclysm and as silently goes back. A pleasant, handsome, typical American, he impresses one, aside from his wonderful ability to hold his tongue concerning his official business, as being unusually alert, keen and decided. Monday he will leave Oakland again and, as the people continue to take the signs of progress in the matter-of-fact way he can't understand, he will enter one of the most remarkable routines of effort ever entered by an American. From his manner it would appear he will accept his experiences in much the same manner as his friends here have accepted the City Hall, the parks and the police department.

"I do not know when I will come back," said Baker today, and in those nine words, between the lines, or somewhere, may be contained something of his feelings toward the w Certain it is one must read between the lines to get even a hint of the conflict from him.

Baker's appreciation of Oakland's development is reflected in large measure by the sentiments of his friends toward him and in their rejoicing that he, as a friend and an Oakland man, has made good in a big field—made good to the extent of a big mission in a big crisis.

RUSSIA ASKED AID, IS REPORT

Japan to Cling to Triple Entente, Says Minister of Affairs.

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The Kokumin Shinbun's Petrograd correspondent says he learns from a trustworthy source that Russia, besides asking for munitions of war from Japan, requested the dispatch of troops to Russia.

There is no confirmation of this statement here.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 25, 7:15 a. m.—"My first care will be to draw still closer the bonds uniting Japan and the powers of the triple entente," said Baron Kikujiro Ishii, the former Japanese ambassador to France, who recently became minister of foreign affairs in the Okuma cabinet, to a representative of the Petit Journal.

"Is not the fate of Japan," asked Baron Ishii, "entirely bound up with that of her allies? Nay, I go further; after the war the relations of Japan and the triple entente must remain not a whit less close, not only in the interest of each, but still more in that of the world's peace."

To an inquiry as to what aid Japan intended to give Russia, the Baron said:

HAS SENT ARMS.

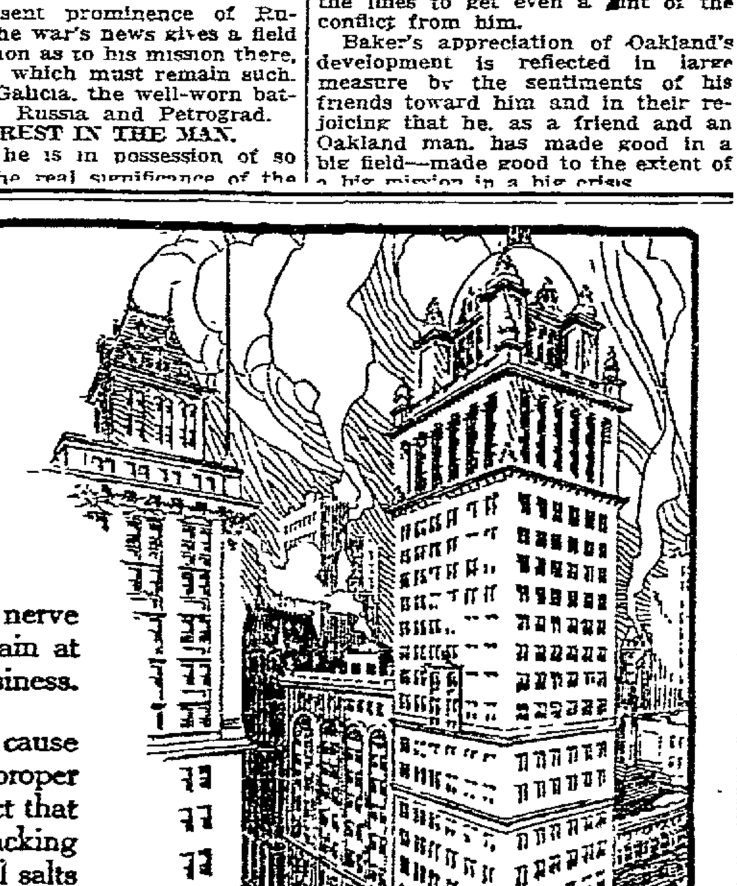
Food for the Business Trenches
It takes the highest type of nerve and endurance to stand the strain at the battle front of modern business.
Many fail. And often the cause is primarily a physical one—improper food—malnutrition. It is a fact that much of the ordinary food is lacking in certain elements—the mineral salts—which are essential to right building of muscle, brain and nerve tissue.
Grape-Nuts FOOD
made of whole wheat and barley, contains these priceless nerve- and brain-building elements in highest degree.



Grape-Nuts food is easy to digest—nourishing—economical—delicious, and as a part of the menu of modern business men and women helps wonderfully in building up the system for strenuous demands—and keeping it there.

SOCIETY MATRON SUES FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. S. T. Rosenstirn Alleges Husband's Incompatibility and Recites Cruelties.

There has not been a [illegible] between Mrs. S. [illegible] Rosenstirn and her husband, Alfred M. Rosenstirn, who separated [illegible] months ago [illegible] widespread gossip among [illegible] on both sides of the body. Mrs. Rosenstirn has commenced suit for divorce in the local courts, alleging incompatibilities on the part of her husband.

Mrs. Rosenstirn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Talbot of Alameda. Her father is president of the wealthy lumber firm of Pope and Talbot. She is a niece of William Talbot, lumber king and a cousin of Earl Talbot who married pretty Helen Scoville of New York and of Douglas and Vera Talbot.

The Rosenstirns were married about four years ago at a large society wedding at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco. Since then they have been conspicuous at most of the society balls and other functions. She is a woman of unusual beauty.

Her husband is one of the twin sons of Dr. Julius Rosenstirn, physician and member of the Bohemian Club where he now resides. His brother Eric attained some fame a few months ago when he engaged in a fistic controversy with William Ireland at the St. Francis.

Mrs. Rosenstirn is also a sister-in-law of the former Emily Rosenstirn, now of New York who startled society a few years ago when she gave what she called an "appendicitis dinner," inviting all of her friends who had undergone such an operation. The center piece of the dinner was a replica of an operating table and "tools" took the place of knives and forks.

For her part Mrs. Rosenstirn is an enthusiast of the terpsichorean art and numbers among her close friends Mrs. Gus Boyer and Mrs. Helen Gray Wilson, both of them clever dancers.

In her present complaint Mrs. Rosenstirn relates that her husband had refused to pay her bills, that he forbade her to dance with guests at her birthday party and had accused her of giving his money to another man.

Also she says he kept urging her to get a divorce. She has finally taken the action, asking for [illegible] per month alimony, and the custody of their two children, Sylvia R., age 3 years, and Talbot R. Rosenstirn, age 18 months.

CARAVAN ENDS OCEAN TO OCEAN AUTO TRIP AT OAKLAND TERMINAL

LINCOLN HIGHWAY DRIVERS ARRIVE

Memorable Trip of 3384 Miles Lands Caravan Into Oakland Greeters' Arms.

Greeted by nearly 200 Oakland autoists, the Lincoln Highway caravan terminated a 3384-mile trip over the ocean-to-ocen road in Oakland today, having passed through 414 towns and cities, of which 61 per cent of the population of the United States cheered them en route. With their rear wheels in the Atlantic ocean at New York, the five machines comprising the caravan started on the official dedicatory trip of the new highway at 10 a. m. on May 15. Tomorrow morning the front wheels will be baptized in the waters of the Pacific at San Francisco, thus terminating a trip that will be memorable in the annals of autoing and road making.

The Oakland delegation of greeters, headed by the Oakland Boys' School Band, met the caravan on the Foothill boulevard. With the greeters was Blythe H. Henderson, chief of the department of transportation exhibits, P. P. I. E. He will preside over Lincoln Highway Day at the Fair this afternoon. Dr. L. F. Herrick, Lincoln Highway consul for this division, and a number of Oakland autoists will participate in the observance of the day.

The personnel of the party who crossed from the Atlantic to the Pacific following H. C. Ostermann, pathfinder. Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Kennedy, E. A. Holden, C. M. Rieling, C. W. Thomas, T. A. Stalker, R. C. Sackett, L. Mienzinger, R. Beardsley and Earl Phillips. The cars are the Stutz, Packard, Oakland, Studebaker and Little Giant truck. The latter carried the baggage and good cheer. Motion pictures of the caravan being greeted by the Oaklanders were taken.

Tomorrow afternoon the automobiles of the caravan will be housed in the department of transportation, P. P. I. E., for exhibition.

Mr. Ostermann estimates that fully 67% of the automobile owners of the United States accompanied them along various parts of the trip. The travelers were luncheon guests of the Oakland Commercial Club at Hotel Oakland. Leaving at 1 o'clock, on the creek route, they were met at the Ferry by the Exposition Band and escorted to the Exposition grounds, where after passing under the tower of jewels, greetings were extended by Mayor Rolph and Exposition officials.

The consuls of the Lincoln Highway Association are planning a general meeting to be held in San Francisco to provide ways and means to install an elaborate system of signs throughout California and Nevada, these signs to give complete road guiding information to autoists.

Traveling Man's Experience.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief, and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so I gave the hotel porter 50 cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point a well man, but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

All Walled in by Cleanliness

AROUND the production of Sterling Gum we provide a wall of cleanliness.

The factory itself is sunny—spotless through and through—the model of its kind—flooded with daylight from morning till night.

Throughout the manufacture of Sterling no hand can touch it. Each morning the men and girls in the Sterling factory slip on clean white gloves—freshly laundered. And they wear fresh-washed uniforms and caps.

It is pleasant to keep this in mind as you hunt the 7th point of Sterling excellence.

2—Velvety body—NO GRIT
3—Crumble-proof
4—Sterling purity

CLAIM OF DOCTOR DISPUTED IN COURT

Lathrop Heirs Arrayed Against Step-Mother in Suit at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 25.—Leland S. Lathrop, 44, and Mrs. Jennie L. Watson, 39, children of the late Charles G. Lathrop, millionaire treasurer of Stanford University, and Leland S. Lathrop Jr., grandson, are arrayed in court today against their stepmother, Mrs. Annie S. Lathrop, 44, and half sister, Hermina Lathrop, 19. The case at issue involved the justice and legality of a $25,000 claim presented by Mrs. Lathrop's brother, Dr. H. J. Schlageter of San Francisco for medical services rendered the late Charles G. Lathrop.

This claim was allowed by Mrs. Lathrop as executrix of her deceased husband's will, but the contestants contend their father and grandfather paid Schlageter in full for his services up to within a month of his death and that $500 is a reasonable sum to pay for medical attention rendered thereafter. Dr. Schlageter asserts that he practically sacrificed his San Francisco practice in order to attend his millionaire patient and that he was in almost constant attendance for a period of two years preceding Lathrop's death. He asserts that $25,000 is a reasonable value for services rendered during this period.

Charles G. Lathrop, who was a brother-in-law of the late founder of Stanford University, died May 24, 1914, leaving an estate valued at $2,363,585.55. His will distributed this estate as follows:

Annie S. Lathrop, widow, $857,489.36.
Leland S. Lathrop, son, $278,069.75.
Jennie L. Watson, daughter, $307,794.72.
Hermina Lathrop, daughter, $377,782.89.
Leland S. Lathrop Jr., grandson, $444,-713.62.

The report of the inheritance tax appraised, which has also been contested, orders the payment by the heirs of a tax to the state amounting to $101,362.25.

PAGEANT TO BRING BACK DAYS OF MISSION SAN JOSE

MISSION SAN JOSE, Aug. 25.—With famous actors, pioneers and their descendants, costumed in the garb of the days when the pardes first erected their mission on California's hills, enacting the scenes of years ago, Mission San Jose, the historic old church at this place, will be the scene Saturday and Sunday of one of the most remarkable pageants in the history of the bay region.

The celebration is in honor of the restoration of the old mission which, fallen into decay with the passing of years, was repaired by the Landmarks Committee of the Native Sons of the Golden West, under whose auspices the mammoth pageant is being held.

The ancient vestments of the mission, the old crucifix and the emblems that the founders of the mission carried, will be used in the masses that will be a part of the ceremonies. The crucifix of Mission San Jose is one of the most famous in the California missions, being one of the most remarkable pieces of work of its kind in the world.

Special trains will bring Native Sons and Daughters, as well as others, excursions having been arranged by many cities.

A military mass on the portico of the mission is to be followed by a Spanish barbecue. The main feature of the great celebration will be the pageant depicting the founding of the mission by Padre Francisco Lausen. The pageant will be acted by famous motion picture actors, assisted by the descendants of the pioneers, and will be directed by Gilbert M. Anderson, the noted "movie" magnate and producer, who has sent his entire force from Niles to aid the committees in the presentation of the story of the parade. Anderson himself will take part in the pageant.

Sunday will see a great rodeo and horsemanship exhibition, in which the cowboys of the mission will be pitted against the motion picture cowboys in feats of horsemanship. The old baptismal font of the mission, fashioned in beaten copper, will be exhibited with the other relics of the pardes on Sunday.

Miss Lucy Rose, daughter of one of the pioneers of the district, will take part, with a number of other descendants of the older families, in the pageant.

RUSSIA BANKRUPT, ZEITUNG ASSERTS

BERLIN, Aug. 25, by wireless to Sayville.—The Vossiche Zeitung publishes what purports to be the stenographic report of a secret meeting of the finance committee, Russian Imperial Council, at which the financial status of the empire and the outlook were compared, the Overseas News Agency says today.

"Count Kokowzew Kokovzoff, formerly premier and minister of finance, drew an awkward picture of financial conditions," says the News Agency in its abstract of the Vossiche Zeitung's report. "The last popular loan, he declared, realized only 400,000,000 rubles ($200,000,000) instead of a billion, the remainder figuring as an asset in state banks, while the balance sheet of the budget shows a deficit of 500,000 rubles. He pointed out that the unlimited issue of paper money would lead to national bankruptcy.

"Finance Minister Bark replied that a foreign loan was out of the question under present circumstances, as France and England would be unable to carry a Russian loan, being themselves in dire financial stress. Paris and London, he said, had promised Russia a new loan only after meeting their own needs, which made a loan to Russia impossible at the present time.

"Imperial Councillor Professor Osaro declared that Russia faces an immediate financial catastrophe. Nothing was to be expected from her allies, he said, and the only salvation lay in America. He advocated that the government announce that it would give 150 rubles in paper for 100 in gold; that it confiscate without exception all gold, jewelry and valuables in private hands; that it lower import duties upon war materials and that a loan be obtained from America in payment for material purchased.

"Political circles consider the meeting as a declaration by Russia of unavoidable bankruptcy, and do not consider that the projected trip of the finance minister to Paris and London will result in a change in the situation."

FRENCH ASK LID BE LIFTED ON CENSORSHIP

PARIS, Aug. 25.—A petition was presented to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies yesterday requesting the houses to obtain from the government a modification of the censorship restricting its operations to questions directly concerning the national defense. At present, the petition says, the press is prevented from recording or commenting upon parliamentary proceedings, although the parliamentary regime is based on the supervision of the government by representatives of the nation and supervision of its representatives by the nation which can be assured only by the freedom of the press.

The petition is signed by Georges Clemenceau, Gabriel Hanetaux, Stephen Pichen, the editors of the Temps, the Journal des Debats, the Figaro, the Gaulois and the principal provincial papers.

MOCLIPS RAZED BY FIRE.

By Associated Press

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 25.—Moclips, a summer resort town on the ocean beach north of Gray's Harbor and which was visited August 18 by a fire which did $40,000 damage, is reported to have been destroyed by another fire last night. Eight stores were burned.

CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT UP.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A proposed amendment to the State Constitution providing that all voters be able to read and write English was advanced to the order of final passage by the constitutional convention today by a vote of 70 to 61.

FOREST FIRE IS TURKISH ALLY

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A long dispatch from the British press representive in the Dardanelles was issued today. It is dated August 12 and gives numerous details of the landing in Suvla Bay and the diversion provided by the Australian forces on the Ansac cove, as reported in General Sir Ian Hamilton's dispatch of August 10.

While abounding in testimony as to the valor of the British forces and the fierceness and stubbornness of the long fighting, this dispatch fails to support recent reports of sweeping allied successes on the Gallipoli peninsula, and the real conclusion to be drawn from it is that the position has undergone no material change for the better.

The official statement issued by the British press bureau August 20 said "the Turks have been able to bring our further advance at this point to a standstill," according to today's detailed dispatch the Suvla Bay force encountered no very serious opposition on first reaching the shore, but before it covered much ground beyond Salt Lake the Turks brought up reinforcements and the advance on the new line was checked by the accidental ignition of the woods and dense undergrowth, which for a time affected friend and foe alike. These fires apparently to some extent were responsible for the failure of the new troops to accomplish the full task set for them.

The "Anzac" forces in the adjacent zone, according to the report, fought with the greatest audacity and won much additional ground, establishing a contact with the Suvla Bay forces. The whole line, the report says, has dug itself inland there for the time being the movement apparently has ended.

LANSING EXPLAINS HAITIEN TREATY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Secretary Lansing said today the treaty the United States had submitted to Haiti, proposing ten years' American control of the island government's finances, had for its sole purpose the establishment of a stable government which could be entirely turned over to the Haitiens themselves.

The American charge at Port-Au-Prince has asked the Haitien government for an answer to the American proposals today. Secretary Lansing confirmed the outline of the plan as it was stated in yesterday's news dispatches from Port-Au-Prince, and said:

> "We have only one purpose—and that is to help the Haitien people and prevent them from being exploited by irresponsible revolutionists. While revolutions are in progress people are starving in the streets of Port-Au-Prince, because they cannot secure the supplies of food which abound in the country. Things have been going from bad to worse, and something must be done. The United States government has no purpose of aggression and is entirely disinterested in prompting this protectorate."

The secretary added that, of course, the arrangement would have to be approved by the United States senate.

CAPE HAITIEN, Aug. 25.—The adherents of Dr. Rosalvo Bobo, the revolutionary leader, who left Haiti following his recent defeat for the presidency, are still in arms. Colonel Eli C. Cole of the United States marine corps, who has been conducting negotiations with them, has made no progress. Dr. Bobo's supporters state that they will not disarm as long as their leader is denied the presidency. The American gunboat Nashville has left for Port-A-Paix to debark 100 marines.

Oakland Facing Cricket Plague

Singing Insects Appear as Advance Guard

Oakland may soon be invaded by an army of crickets.

The advance guard arrived last night—and the main force is on its way down from Chico, where it swarmed for three days and then suddenly took the road again.

Last night from North Oakland residents complained of thousands of crickets. They could be heard almost the whole length of Telegraph avenue. Berkeley also reported hearing many of the noisy insects.

Observers believe that this sudden influx of crickets may be the advance guard of the enormous swarm that terrified Chico. The crickets appeared as if by magic and were a pest for three days, invading stores, houses and sidewalks and making life uncomfortable throughout the entire time. The crickets disappeared as suddenly as they came and no trace of the insect army could be found.

Crickets travel in armies or swarms like the grasshoppers of the Middle West and sometimes do considerable damage. In no event, say the scientists, will they prove as much of a pest in Oakland as in Chico. Plans are being made to receive them with bluestone and other weapons here.

FIFTH AUTO STOLEN.

The fifth automobile to be stolen from the streets of the city in three days was taken last night from in front of 498 Twenty-fifth street. It is the propery of J. E. Briscal, 609 Tweny-fourth street, who reported the theft to the police.

May Make Big Cut In Chemical Prices

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Investigation of the American chemical industry, with a view to promoting the production in the United States of vast quantities of chemicals now imported, [illegible] by Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. The [illegible] will be made by Dr. Thomas H. Norton, a bureau expert, who said today the United States had available raw material out of which could be produced profitably fully 75 per cent of the $55,000,000 worth of chemicals now imported.

GREWSOME FETE PLANNED.

RICHMOND, Aug. 25.—Dr. Charles R. Blake [illegible] and the members of the medical and dental profession of the city who are members of the local lodge of Elks have made elaborate preparations for the "Skull and Crossbones" ladies' night which will be given to the Elks and their invited guests at the club rooms tomorrow evening.

For Freckled, Tanned, Red or Wrinked Skin

Just beneath that freckled, tanned or reddened complexion there's an exquisitely beautiful skin of youthful tint and delicacy. If you could only bring this complexion to the surface, discarding the discolored one! You can—in the easiest, simplest, most natural manner imaginable. Just get at any drugstore an ounce of ordinary mercolized wax, apply nightly like cold cream, removing it mornings with warm water. The wax assists Nature by gradually peeling off the lingering particles of [illegible] half-dead surface skin, causing no discomfort whatever. Cutaneous defects like pimples, blotches, liver spots, moth patches, freckles, of course disappear with the old skin. Nothing else will accomplish such wonderful results in so short a time.

Fine lines and even deeper wrinkles often appear at this season. In such cases nothing is better than a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel. This is remarkably effective.—Advertisement.

A distinctive personality at the Oakland this week is Dr. Yamei Kin of China, whose blue brocade robes have attracted the frivolous interest of her Occidental sisters. They are certainly effective and Dr. Kin wears them with a sort of classic Oriental grace that makes her look like a figure on a Canton vase.

She has brought an intimate touch of Orientalism to the Western formalities of the N. E. A. The other evening at the hotel she spoke of Chinese women to a group of Americans. They are not altogether the meek, downtrodden creatures the rest of the world fancies. There is even an Oriental equivalent for the "henpecked husband." To illustrate, Dr. Kin told a story that is a favorite with Chinese humorists.

Three men were sitting talking quietly in a room where, in pleasant converse, they forgot the lateness of the hour. Presently a messenger rushed in to say that the three wives were coming after them, armed with brooms. Two of the men fled in fright, but the third sat still. The servant bade him hurry, but he remained, and the servant shook him by the shoulder, to discover he was dead. The shock had killed him.

Rather grim humor, but it proves the point that Chinese husbands are not always feared by docile wives whose souls are not their own, since some unhappy and well disciplined man invented the story.

MISS BERNICE TAYLOR, WHO WORE A HOOP SKIRT BRIDESMAID GOWN AT THE VON ADELUNG-BARBOUR WEDDING LAST EVENING.

The bridesmaids at the Von Adelung-Barbour wedding might have been figures in some old French color print in their hoop skirts and rose tarletons. The gowns were extravagantly admired and were altogether wonderfully pretty and effective, and Miss Bernice Taylor, Miss Anna Easton and Miss Margaret Hackett who were the bridesmaids, wore them with the grace of great grandmothers when they were girls. There were genuine hoops over which fell skirts of rose satin and over these chiffon skirts and then flaring skirts of tulle in a lighter shade. Beneath the tulle were scattered roses in garlands and singly, and over the tulle a lattice of cut satin made a deep border at the bottom of the skirt. From the girdle at either side extended satin butterflies with out-spread wings, and the girdles were finished with butterfly bows in the back. The bridesmaids carried staffs tied with roses and tulle.

Miss Edith Goodfellow's costume, as maid of honor, was of pink tulle over chiffon made with a bodice of lace, and a high girdle fashioned of cloth of silver and roses. Miss Agnes Von Adelung, the bride's cousin who was a flower girl, wore a dainty white embroidered frock brought from Europe where the Edward Von Adelungs spent last year. Mrs. Alexis Von Adelung, mother of the bride, was in a handsome robe of lace over white satin. The bridal costume was exceptionally lovely, of real lace falling in straight lines over white satin, and caught with two narrow girdles, one above the waist line and another just below.

Mrs. Fred Fiske Barbour, mother of the groom wore a gown of one of the soft new silks in a changeable rose and green color that had a silvery effect and was trimmed with rare old lace that had been among her own wedding gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Barbour will spend a honeymoon at Tahoe before going to their new home in Ross Valley.

MISS GROSSMAYER ENGAGED.

A very interesting engagement is that of Miss Ruth Grossmayer and Mr. L. Cameron Fraser, Jr., which was announced in betrothal cards received today. Miss Grossmayer is a charming and very stunning girl who is one of the favorites in the younger set, and there is much pleasant interest in her engagement. She is the daughter of Mrs. R. G. Grossmayer and a sister of Mrs. J. B. Knowles, and the family were among pioneer residents of Oakland. Miss Grossmayer has entertained frequently at her mother's home in Vernon Heights and there will be many informal affairs given in her honor. Among her more intimate friends are Miss Helen Bon, Miss Carmen Ghiradelli, Miss Alice Perkins, the grand-daughter of Senator Perkins, and Miss Katherine Fink. Mr. Fraser is a member of the law and insurance firm of Lloyd, Spengler & Fraser of San Francisco and Oakland and is considered one of the very clever younger business men. His home is in Alameda and he is a member of several clubs. He is over six feet tall and since Miss Grossmayer is also very tall, they are a striking young couple. She is unusually attractive with bright brunette coloring and will be a handsome bride. No date has been set for the wedding but it will probably take place in the fall.

There was an original touch in the conventional betrothal cards. They were engraved with the names of the two young people, in script copied from their own handwriting which made them attractively different from the usual old English or Spencerian effects.

TARGET PRACTICE WILL OPEN, RESIDENTS WARNED

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The northern approach of New York harbor will be swept by a cannonade Thursday, it was announced today, from the 12-inch mortars at Fort Totten, in a test of gunners who will be called upon to aid in repelling a possible attack upon New York City in case of war. The target, a float 20 by 30 feet, will be stationed 13,000 yards off.

The vibration of the heavy firing will be felt, it is estimated, within a radius of six miles, and a general notice was issued today by the army authorities at the fort to residents to open their windows, remove pictures from walls, put their china, glass and porcelain on the floors and watch out for falling plaster during the hours of fire.

Although the cannonading will be audible in Manhattan, it was said that the vibration would not be felt in that borough.

UNKIND REMARKS

(By LILLIAN RUSSELL)

(Copyright, 1915, by Lillian Russell.)

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

A VERY young girl wrote to me a few days ago. She asked whether certain of her friends were not very unkind when they teased and criticised her because she was pigeon-toed.

Probably this girl never noticed the deformity until her friends began to mention it to her. And it may be that the current style of shoes and short skirts brought it to their notice. However that may be, she is overlooking an opportunity to evade cutting remarks by curing herself of her pigeon toes.

When we hear of the remarkable things the doctors and surgeons are accomplishing today in removing pieces of ribs and grafting them to the frontal bones of the head as foundations for defective noses, and in extending receding chins and changing the lines of irregular jaws, women and men who are embarrassed by facial defects need not be discouraged, much less the little girl with pigeon toes.

Crooked legs are made straight. Even curved spines are corrected. The bowed legs of neglected children are remolded. The principle upon which such operations are based is the patient application of pressure to push the joints and muscles into their proper places and wait for nature to keep them there.

Stuttering and stammering people can learn to speak easily and freely under a treatment which is founded on patience.

When I think of all these accomplishments, I wonder why those people who are bothered by less annoying defects and deformities fail to attempt their correction. I feel sure that the girl who wrote to me could straighten her feet if she was sufficiently patient. Her body is still in a formative condition.

I would suggest to her that she stand erect, with heels together and toes pointed out while going through simple calisthenics every day. After that she should walk slowly for half an hour at a time, with her mind concentrated on her object and her feet in the proper position. It would take time for her to acquire a new habit, the habit of walking correctly, but I am sure that eventually she would be more than repaid for the time and mental energy expended.

There are too many people who worry over their troubles and defects, and yet they do not have enough common sense to seek remedies for them. Or, if they do seek and find a remedy, they do not have the stamina to go through with the cure.

The majority of women are looking for easy ways to reduce flesh, put on flesh, walk properly, sleep properly and add to their beauty generally. But they want to exert no energy of mind or body to do so.

I hear women say, "I would do anything in the world to become thin." Some one tells them of an effective way, if the instructions are properly carried out. They go at it violently for two days, seldom more. Then they drop back into their former mode of living and eating and keep on worrying over the criticism of their friends.

If people tease you about a physical deformity they are unkind. But your defects you can overcome. If you do not you are unkind to yourself.

A woman can be as perfect in body as she has a mind to be. She must have the mind, however, and exert it to the best of her ability. There is no "crying quits" in the middle of the game. She must make up her mind to "go through." The wonders she can accomplish are evident in millions of cases.

Such a thing as a slight deformity of the body can be corrected by a desire to be right, followed up by the application of mind upon the matter and the faithful adherence to the rules of cure.

Nothing is effected by a half-way method.

It is a woman's duty to herself to be charming and attractive. No exertion is too strenuous to accomplish that end. The power is within herself. She shall be her own judge—deformed and ugly, or perfectly formed and beautiful—as her mind dictates.

Answers to Queries

CELIA—You haven't asked me too many questions, Celia, but my sace in the paper is limited, and swer them all. I shall be happy to write you personally if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope. I am sorry, but I do not know anything about the cold cream you mention. A good skin food massaged into your skin every night will, I am sure, remove the little wrinkles that are forming under your eyes and around your mouth. You are truly too young to have your face marked in this way. The green soap treatment is excellent for blackheads. They are caused from a clogging of the pores of the skin or from indigestion.

MRS. JOSEPH S.—If you will have your little daughter take scalp treatments it will greatly improve the condition of her hair. The dandruff is liable to form a thick crust which will eventually kill the hair. I shall be glad to send you my formula for hair tonic and instructions for scalp massage if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

ELSPETH—There is no harm, my dear, in using an eyebrow pencil, and no one could possibly think you were not a nice sort of a girl because you have tried to improve your appearance. You will, of course, have to do it with such skill that it will not be noticed.

MRS. L. K. H.—The buzzing, whizzing sounds in your head may be caused by catarrh of the nose and throat. It spreads in the tiny air tube, closes it up, causing deafness and the buzzing sounds. The best way to accomplish relief is to spray the nose and throat with some antiseptic spray lotion, which can be obtained from any chemist, or with just plain salt and water. The spray should be used several times a day until the cause is removed. If, however, the deafness does not go away, I would suggest your consulting an ear specialist.

ALICIA—I wish I could impress upon my correspondents how necessary it is to avail themselves of "heaven's gift," fresh air. There isn't a doubt in my mind but that the trouble which you are having with your throat is caused by your not getting accustomed to fresh air. If you will fill your lungs with fresh air constantly there will be no place for the germs of a close, poorly ventilated room to lodge. Be careful that your room is well ventilated at night. The best way is to lower the window two or three inches from the bottom. This will allow the impure air to go out and the fresh air to come in.

LILLIAN—I am afraid you have been eating too much pastry and too many sweets, Lillian. You will have to be careful of your diet or you will never be able to wear low necked dresses. The daily bath and an hour's exercise in the open air will also help in purifying the blood. In addition to this treatment, apply a dab of the following lotion to the pimples several times a day. One dram precipitate of sulphur, one dram tincture of camphor, and four ounces rosewater. After taking a salt bath, rub briskly with a turkish towel.

HANGS CLOTHES ON LIMB, LOSES THEM

Bertillion Expert Returns From Vacation Minus His Garments.

STOCKTON, Aug. 25.—Fresh from a vacation frolic in the mountains above Lake Tahoe, Roy Tretheway, Bertillion expert of San Joaquin county, has returned in a happy frame of mind, but minus a suit of clothes, which is swinging in the breezes, in shreds, along a lonesome, heart-breaking trail entirely surrounded by an impenetrable forest.

During a constitutional hike Tretheway became separated from the main party. He and others had been out tracking for deer. It was getting dark. Tretheway had forgotten to blaze the trees, like in "The Last of the Mohicans," which completely enveloped him on every side. Soon the stars came out and began to play leap-frog with Milady Venus so high above the firmament. Tretheway wandered over many square miles of range without meeting any one he knew—even a jackrabbit would have been a welcome sight.

His journey through the deep brush soon began to separate him from the homespun which adorned his more or less majestic physique. But with that acumen which is known and appreciated only by the handcuff brigade, Tretheway bent and often broke his footsteps over stumps and unbeaten paths. He was lost. Disappointment like a grimp mask enshrouded him and he sat down beneath the azure blue, exhausted, flabbergasted and thought of lions and bears and gophers. Most of his clothing hung in strips on the twigs and spurs of numerous trees along the route he had so laboriously pursued.

Finally, and we pause here for effect, Tretheway swung into camp very Rip Van Winkle.

He was clothed in a smile and a sheepskin, which carelessly swung from his hips.

DESTROYER WHIPPLE IS DAMAGED BY BIG STORM

By Associated Press.

SEWARD, Alaska, Aug. 25.—Four of the five torpedo-boat destroyers cruising in Alaskan waters arrived here yesterday from Kodiak. The fifth, the Whipple, which was damaged by storm off Port Orford, Oregon, during the voyage north from Mare Island, sailed from the Puget Sound navy yard later than the other four vessels, did not overtake them and is now at Sitka.

Lieutenant Sharp, commander of the flotilla, reports a fine voyage to Kiska harbor, in the Rat islands. On the return trip from the Aliutians the destroyers visited the Shumagin islands. A severe storm was encountered after leaving Kodiak and the Preble suffered loss of a motor boat and davits. Rail stanchions were also carried away. The vessels will return to the Puget Sound navy yard.

POCKETS WERE PICKED.

J. M. Nickell, 1902 Eighty-fifth avenue, reported to the police that pickpockets had relieved him of a watch valued at $30 as he was riding on a Hayward car.

FORMER JOHN DREW STARRING VEHICLE IN MOTION PICTURES

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN

The motion picture adaptation of "The Second In Command," a play originally produced by Charles Frohman, with John Drew in the leading role, is to open a four-day engagement commencing today at the Oakland Photo Theatre. The many admirers of Francis X. Bushman and Marguerite Snow will be pleased to know that they appear jointly in the leading roles of this elaborate production detailing a battle between the British and the Boers in South Africa. The battle scenes are a development of the story, but the real interest wherein heart strings are deeply played upon, finds its place in London.

"Nearly A Lady," a delightful photo-comedy narrating the social adventures of a breezy daughter of Montana cattle barons who comes to New York as the fiancee of an English lord who "doesn't take," is the film vehicle for the remarkable comedy talents of the internationally celebrated comedienne Elsie Janis, who appears on the same program.

1200 AUTOS TO PARADE SKYLINE

Boulevard Festival Will Be Motorist Event of Consequence.

Automobilists from all parts of the state and tourists and visitors from all over the world will take part in the big festival that is to be held in Oakland September 15 to celebrate the completion and dedication of the new "Skyline boulevard." Twelve hundred decorated machines will take part in the parade; 5000 visitors will be seated in the "Hilltop amphitheater," 1200 feet above the sea, to witness the ceremonies, and twice that number will participate in the grand ball at the auditorium and other features of the festival in the evening.

For many years automobilists enjoying the delightful drive across the Contra Costa hills between the east bay cities and the Mt. Diablo country in Contra Costa county have clamored for a link of boulevard that would connect the northern system of boulevard which extends from Berkeley through the intra-county tunnel to Walnut Creek and Martinez and the southern system which crosses the hills at Thornhill pass into Moraga canyon.

WAS PRIVATE VENTURE.

Begun several years ago at private expense of F. C. Havens, the two miles of roadway has just been completed, at a cost of $12,000, by the city of Oakland. It extends from the Oakland portal of the tunnel easterly to the Snake road at Thornhill pass, at the head of Moraga canyon, a distance of two miles. Midway of the new stretch of roadway is a natural amphitheater, where several thousand people can find comfortable resting place, and it is here that the ceremonies will be held.

From this roadway one views the most picturesque and inspiring scenery to be found in this part of the state. To the southward the view extends across the rooftops of the east bay cities, across the bay to San Francisco and the hills of San Mateo and through the Golden Gate to the horizon of the Pacific. To the north one gazes out across the beautiful hills and valleys of Contra Costa county to the great bulk of Mt. Diablo. From it one gets a birdseye view of the entire country from Martinez to Redwood City and from Mt. Tamalpais to Mission peak.

Taking part in the celebration will be folk from both sides of the bay and both sides of the Contra Costa hills. City and county officials of all of the San Francisco bay district, officials and foreign representatives at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, delegates to the California League of Municipalities and officers and members of the many parlors of Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West will be invited guests of the occasion.

TAFT SPECIALLY INVITED.

William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, has been invited as the guest of honor and to recall a pleasant visit he made to Oakland on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the city hall.

The big parade will form at Lakeside park and will tour the downtown district and then through Trestle Glen to Fourth Avenue Heights and up the Snake road to Thornhill pass and the beginning of the new "Skyline boulevard," and over it to the "Hilltop amphitheater," where the ceremonies will take place; then returning by way of the Tunnel road and Claremont and Berkeley.

During the evening Lake Merritt is to be especially illuminated for aquatic sports and a pageant, the new Municipal Auditorium is to be thrown open to the people of the city and their thousands of visitors for a grand ball and for open-air dancing uptown Harrison street is to be roped off at Fourteenth and Nineteenth streets and bands of music stationed at either end throughout the evening.

All of the civic and improvement organizations of the east bay cities and the cities and towns of the interior of Alameda county and of Contra Costa county are interested in the success of the affair, which is being arranged by the Alameda County Publicity Association.

ALIENATION DANGER VOICED BY EX-CONSUL

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 25.—"We have already alienated Japan," says Amos P. Wilder, former United States consul at Hong Kong and Shanghai, China, and at present the representative of Yale University in China, in an address on "Present Day Conditions in the Orient," today at Chautauqua.

"We are treating them unjustly and soon, perhaps, positive aversion will be planted there. The appeal of this country from the Orient, the appeal to help them and be friendly toward them is not a matter of sympathy any longer. It is a matter of wisdom to us, because the white race cannot go on despising these people, which are, during the next few decades, coming into tremendous power, without having to pay an awful price."

POPE PLEDGES AID TO PERSECUTED HEBREWS

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, replying to a communication from this city, asking the aid of Pope Benedict "in favor of the Jews who are persecuted and still deprived, in some nations, of civil rights," said, in a letter transmitted through Monsignor Giovanni Bonzano, the apostolic delegate at Washington:

> The August Pontiff has graciously taken note of this document and has desired me to request you to write to Mr. Mason that the Holy See, as it has always in the past acted according to the dictates of justice in favor of the Jews, intends now also to follow the same path on every propitious occasion that may present itself.

SUFFRAGE TORCH FOUND.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The suffrage torch of victory, which disappeared from a suffrage automobile in Atlantic Highlands, N. J., last week, was returned to the suffragettes here yesterday by Anthony V. Lynch Jr., a local lawyer, who said he found it in a Philadelphia street car. The torch, which had been carried in pilgrimages from one end of this state to the other, was recently turned over to the Jersey suffragists in the middle of the Hudson river and started on another trip through New Jersey when it was lost.

MANY ARE VACCINATED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The public health service today announced a tremendous increase in the number of persons submitting to anti-typhoid vaccination, and declared there was "no reason why typhoid fever should not be a rare disease by 1930." The statement added that it was estimated that in 1915 the total number of immunized persons in the United States would reach 300,000 compared with 100,000 last year.

MEXICO'S WOEFUL PLIGHT.

news from Mexico continues to be of a disquietnd menacing character. It looks very much as u the President would have to shake his finger pampered bandit proteges again and exclaim hty, naughty!" in loud, if not rude, tones. The attempt at mediation and pacification through the of a coalition with a number of the Latin Amerountries has proved as futile and barren of results d the Niagara conference. We had supposed he President after two years of hard experience Mexico had learned a few fundamental facts reng Mexicans and other Latin Americans. We sup that the President would not again seriously pt to restore peace in Mexico by the employment of re thorough and drastic methods than are fur by diplomacy and international conferences. It een stated a number of times since the recent joint as dispatched to the Mexican leaders by this govnt in conjunction with the governments of several American republics that a pledge had been made President to his Latin American colleagues that ceful measure should be resorted to in their efforts ify Mexico. If the President made such a prom this, and it looks as though he did, one need not be sed at the results, which are practically nothing nditions grow worse in Mexico from day to day. Mabel Boardman, the very experienced and effihead of the Red Cross, said to a Tribune reporter day: "We are doing much in Europe. But here is o starving on our doorstep. We must come to the of her women and children, who are dying by eds. Only 1 per cent of Mexico is under arms. The 99 per cent is starving. Only a few small patches country are being cultivated. And this meager st is commandeered by the warring factions before time to ripen. The grim spectacle of starvation is real just across our border."

wonder if these truthful and sorrowful words pro an impression in Washington. What can be the hts of those responsible for an administration through its ineptness, stubbornness and wanton rance of real conditions, has permitted twelve or en millions of people at our threshold to be reduced condition which forces them to face starvation and . We have been temporizing and fooling with half zen bandit leaders, backed by a few thousand illas, while a patient, peace-loving people of a great ry have been harried, butchered and deprived of neans of sustaining life. Americans and other forrs at the same time have been outraged, insulted, red and murdered. Several hundred million dollars' h of property belonging to foreigners and, in the to our own countrymen has been uselessly and dly destroyed by the followers of the bandit chiefwho have been supplied with arms and ammunition given other assistance by the administration.

nericans have responded promptly, generously and rly to the appeals for aid from Belgium, Serbia and nd. According to Miss Boardman and scores of persons who are adequately informed, the suffern Mexico is as widespread and general as it is in of the war-swept countries of Europe, and many people are involved than in any of the countries tioned because Mexico has more than double the popon of Belgium. The Red Cross appeal for help for starving Mexican women and children ought to a sympathetic chord in the breasts of the American e. The response ought to be doubly great to this al for the reason that our own government is, in measure, responsible for the direful state of affairs h exists in Mexico today.

OHIO AT THE FAIR.

he only attention which the participation of the state Ohio in the Panama-Pacific Exposition has attracted been of an undesirable sort. Several minor bles have been reported from the Ohio building and a San Francisco paper has a sensational article big head lines in which the grocery bills of the Ohio mission are discussed at length. It appears that a ocratic donkey named Dohaney, who is auditor of , has refused to approve grocery bills because the had ordered a quart of wine and a bottle of whisky ulinary purposes. All this is profoundly uninterestto the public and the San Francisco paper might well e the column of space which it has wasted on the commisssion to better and more useful purposes. The whole trouble with the Ohio situation at the fair n the character of the commissioners whom Gover Willis appointed to represent his state. Ohio is one of very important states of the union, yet its represenn at the fair is of a wholly colorless, unimportant and gible character. As a mater of fact Ohio at the Exion hardly exists. Other states of consequence have nguished men to represent them at the Panama-Pa Exposition. They did not choose as commissioners politicians who had no other qualification for this cular task save that they were political friends and orters of the governor. New York has been reprended here by such men as Dr. Seth Low, one of its most ent citizens and a former president of Columbia; Martin Glynn, ex-governor of the state, and by half zen other men of equal prominence and character. ana was represented by former Vice-President Fairs. Most states have been represented by ex-govrs or senators. If the governor of Ohio had had gh intelligence and breadth of mind to do somebesides play personal politics he would have sent such men as former Senator Foraker, ex-Governor on Harmon and ex-Governor Myron T. Herrick. A mission composed of such men would have been th while and it would have given Ohio its proper and prestige among the commonwealths of this ntry and the foreign nations which are represented he Panama-Pacific Exposition. Instead of sending men who are really representative of Ohio's importance and greatness Governor Willis saw fit to commit the interests of Ohio to a former penitentiary steward. If the people of Ohio find their state making a ridiculous and negligible figure at the Exposition they have their Governor to thank for it.

AS WE DID IN CUBA.

John Barrett, Director-General of the Pan-American Union, gathered the Latin-American commissioners to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at a luncheon yesterday. A good many speeches were made of a conventional character, dwelling upon the common interests and destinies of North and South America and pointing out opportunities for trade and commercial development. The foreign speaker who really said something impressive and worth while was the Commissioner-General from Cuba, General Loynaz del Castillo, who did more than make pretty phrases about the historic friendship which is supposed to exist between the Latin-American republics and "the great republic of North America," as they are fond of calling us.

One of the brightest spots in the history of the relations between the United States and the Latin-American countries is found in the record of our action in Cuba and in the keeping of our promise by the withdrawal from it. General Castillo took occasion to direct attention to the definite and solid benefits which the Cubans enjoy by reason of American intervention and the close relations which continue to exist between the two countries. He said that his country, Cuba, is happy and prosperous and that they are about to harvest the biggest sugar crop of which there is record. The country is improving in every way. Schools are multiplying; good roads are more numerous; the postal service is better than it has ever been; sanitation is admirable. Had it not been for American intervention, declared General Castillo, "our plight would be far from an enviable one. Instead of widespread prosperity and a growing country we would have had discord, revolutions, a country laid waste, widespread suffering, bad government, poverty and epidemic disease. Intervention has saved us from these calamities and given us the longest period of prosperity and health and happliness the island has ever enjoyed."

What we have done in Cuba it is quite possible we could do in Mexico and in Haiti, in Nicaragua and in Honduras. If the Mexicans are wise they will get rid of some of the disturbing factors in their country, and we shall not inquire too closely into their methods of procedure in this regard. After the enforced retirement of Carranza, Villa, Zapata and other self-seeking bandits, the Mexicans should summon a national convention of some sort and invite this country to intervene for the restoration of peace and order. Two or three years under the beneficent rule of some such capable man as General Wood would bring Mexico out of her difficulties and set her upon the path to peace and prosperity. This country is not looking for trouble. It does not wish to annex Mexico nor does it yearn for the job of pacification. But it would be better in every way for us, for Mexico and the world if the United States government were to intervene in the manner as we have indicated. It would be cheaper and more agreeable and altogether more humane than to allow the present dreadful conditions to continue.

ITALY AND TURKEY.

The formal declaration of war against Turkey by Italy is dictated largely by strategic considerations as applied to the common cause of the quadruple entente powers. Certainly it is timed when reinforcements are apparently badly needed by the French and English in the Gallipoli campaign. With the Austro-German forces steadily and rapidly forcing the Russian lines backward toward Petrograd and Moscow, in which process heavy losses are being sustained by the Slavs, and the fall of Riga, the important Baltic seaport, threatened, it appeared imperative that more progress be made toward forcing the Dardanelles.

If the Germans capture Riga and establish a strong naval base there, Russian commerce through the Baltic would be vitally injured. The port of Archangel would be the only one open for supplies and that is closed half the year by ice. Russia would become practically isolated from the rest of the world, her only means of communication being the Asiatic port of Vladivostok. The trans-Siberian railway, over which the supplies landed at this port are distributed, is already overtaxed. The Russian naval victory as reported from Petrograd yesterday may mean, however, that the fall of Riga is by no means certain.

If the Dardanelles are quickly opened Russia may be given munitions and other supplies before it is too late. If Italy's aid renders this obvious plan of the allies successful she will have made the most important individual contribution to the cause of her partners. It is reported that she has an army of 150,000 men and a powerful cruiser squadron ready to dispatch to the Gallipoli peninsula.

Italy declared war against Austria on May 24th last, but has remained nominally at peace with Germany and Turkey. Of course there are some political causes that will be alleged to justify her declaration of hostilities against Turkey. She charges that the Ottoman Government has been guilty of fomenting revolt among the Libyan tribesmen and has unlawfully prevented Italian reservists in Turkey from returning home to join in the war against Austria, Turkey's ally. The Italian ambassador at Constantinople also has repeatedly demanded an explanation concerning Turkey's alleged refusal to withdraw her troops from the Cyrenaica district in Tripoli. Turkey has further been charged with generally failing to abide by the treaty stipulations she made at the close of the Turko-Italian war in 1911 to co-operate in maintaining order on the African coast.

What effect Italy's participation in the attempt to open the Black Sea for the benefit of Russia will have on the attitude of the Balkan nations remains to be seen. It may reasonably be expected, however, that Germany and Austria will immediately start a vigorous campaign against Serbia in order to open the way for sending assistance to Turkey.

The people of France have shown the heroic spirit that pervades all classes, ages and both sexes of the population in the remarkable manner in which they have answered the appeal for war finances. Six weeks ago the French government issued a formal appeal to the people to exchange their gold for notes of the Bank of France. During the first week $2,600,000 was turned in, the following week $8,000,000, and weekly deposits continued to gain until now the common people of France have turned $78,000,000 of gold into their central banking institution. It represents their petty hoardings since the Moroccan dispute of 1911. We are led to recall how in 1871 the old men and women, the little children of France stood in interminable lines before the Bank of France and emptied their stockings of their savings that the German conqueror might be paid to get out of their country.

If one Higgins contributed a thousand dollars to the Davie campaign fund how many Higginses are entitled to fat jobs in the city government?

How many Higginses are still unprovided for, anyway? Has a deserving citizen got to be an eminent financier like Mr. "Stu" McMullen or bear the name of Higgins to get a job?

MUCH AMERICAN MONEY ABROAD

Many Loans Made to Belligerents and Neutrals in Last Year.

Of the belligerent nations France, Germany and Russia have all obtained some money in this country since the outbreak of hostilities. It is believed also that Italy was favored with a banking credit, but the details are lacking and the arrangement, whatever its form, was made prior to the open break with Austria.

The French loan took the shape of an issue of $30,000,000 one year 5 per cent Treasury notes of the French republic dated April 1, 1915, due April 1, 1916. The notes were publicly offered at 99½, or on an interest basis of 5½ per cent, and about $30,000,000 were sold before the offering was withdrawn.

Germany's direct borrowing was of similar character, namely, an issue of $10,000,000 nine months 5 per cent Treasury notes of the imperial German government, dated April 1, 1915, due January 1, 1916. These also were offered publicly at 99⅝, or on an interest basis of 5.52 per cent, and they were all placed.

Russia established a credit of $25,000,000 here early in the year. The national character of this borrowing is indicated by the official announcement, which reads in part: "A group of New York banks and bankers recently made a banking arrangement with Russia by undertaking to accept short term drafts of the Russian government, the proceeds of which are to be used in payment for supplies."

In addition to the direct French borrowing on Treasury notes a credit of $10,000,000 was established here through the Bank of France last October, and more recently the Paris house of Rothschilds with the approval and assistance of the French government arranged a collateral loan with a New York banking group, based on the security of American railway bonds owned by and domiciled in France. By this arrangement $43,000,000 has been secured thus far and the loan will run possibly to $60,000,000 or $70,000,000.

A more recent negotiation for a commercial and banking credit of $20,000,000 or thereabout between Paris and New York bankers has not been concluded as yet. If perfected this loan cannot be regarded of national character.

Loans to neutral countries, due to war, made by the United States are as follows: Switzerland, $15,000,000; Sweden, $5,000,000, and Norway, $3,000,000.—N. Y. Sun.

MORE WALSH TRICKS.

As it turns out, the so-called report of the Federal Industrial Relations Commission on the recent Bayonne strike was not what it was made to appear by Chairman Frank P. Walsh. The commission never considered the report or authorized its publication. At the instance of a Socialist newspaper, Walsh had two men investigate the Bayonne strike, and then, without consulting the other members of the Industrial Relations Commission, made public the report as though coming from the commission. In this as on so many other occasions, Walsh had no scruples about misusing his official position.

In the light of Chairman Walsh's previous performances, this piece of trickery is not surprising. The man has shown himself at every opportunity to be an unscrupulous demagogue and blatherskite. His associates have repeatedly found it necessary to protest against his conduct and to disavow his methods. In the eyes of the public he has disgraced both himself and them.

But for the accident of his holding the title of chairman of an important federal commission, Walsh would have passed unnoticed, like any other loose-tongued street agitator. In every way he was unfitted for his duties, and his presence on the commission and his bearing in public have been disastrous to its work. Fully $500,000 has been thrown away with no particular purpose except that Walsh might indulge his hankering for notoriety and advertise himself as a mountebank.—New York World.

ENGLISH HUMOR.

It is not every man who knows how to compliment a woman gracefully. The following dialogue took place between a very pretty lady singer and a celebrated composer, who is by no means addicted to flattery:

"Tell me, my dear maestro, which would you like better, to be blind or deaf?"

"Deaf, madam, when I am looking at you, and blind when I hear you sing!"

The lecturer on theosophy had concluded his long and able address, and stood looking at the audience.

"If there is any question," he said, "that any of you would like to ask me before I sit down, I should be pleased to answer it."

Amid the deep silence that followed this remark an earnest looking man near the door rose up and said:

"I'd like to know, professor, if anybody has ever yet discovered a reliable and certain cure for corns."

"Mary," said the sick man to his wife, when the doctor had pronounced it a case of smallpox, "if any of my creditors call, tell them I am at last in a position to give them something."

As a pleasant-faced woman passed the corner, Jones touched his hat to her, and remarked feelingly, to his companion:

"Ah, my boy, I owe a great deal to that woman."

"Your mother?" was the query.

"No, my landlady."

"John, you were talking in your sleep last night, and you frequently spoke in terms of endearment to a certain Euphemia? Who is Euphemia?"

"Why, my dear, that was my—my sister's name."

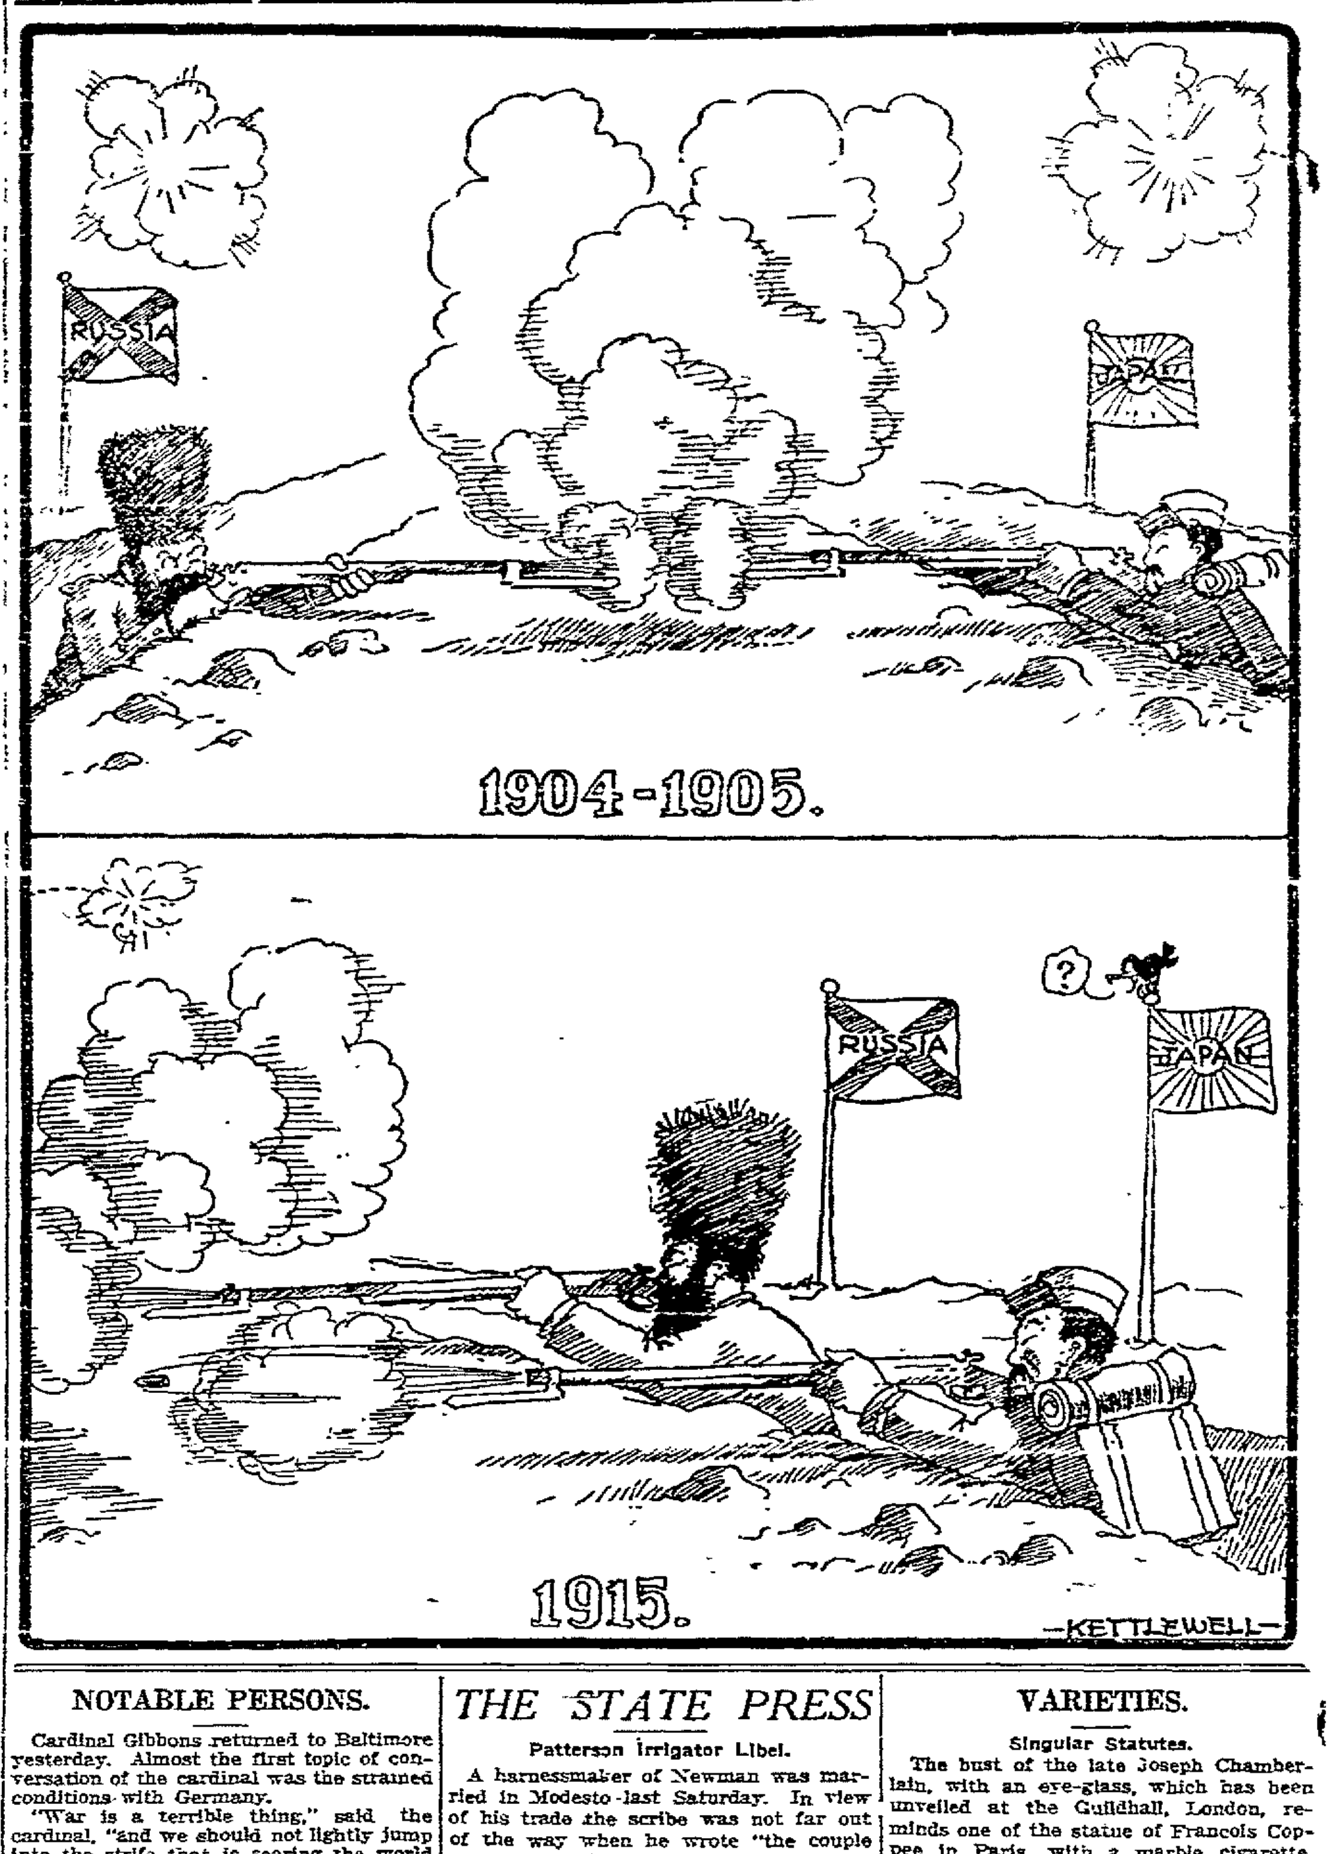
"John! your sister's name was Jane."

"Yes, dear; but we called her Euphemia for short."—Tit-Bits.

WATERING AN ARMY.

One of the numberless tasks of the general staff of a great army is to provide water for the soldiers and horses. Only running water is used. In the German army the up-stream water is used for drinking, and the down-stream water for watering the horses and for bathing. Suitable signs notify the men which water they may safely drink and which they may use only for bathing. In shallow or narrow streams basins are dug or small dams built, in order to form reservoirs of sufficient size. Stepping-stones are put down so that no one need walk through the water, and the banks are shored up with boards to keep them from crumbling into the water.

'TIS A FUNNY WORLD!



NOTABLE PERSONS.

Cardinal Gibbons returned to Baltimore yesterday. Almost the first topic of conversation of the cardinal was the strained conditions with Germany.

"War is a terrible thing," said the cardinal, "and we should not lightly jump into the strife that is tearing the world to pieces.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels said that in his opinion submarines and aeroplanes were among the most powerful weapons of warfare, and reaffirmed his intention to ask Congress to strengthen both of these branches of the service.

The Chinese Legation has issued a statement today, based upon a cablegram from Pekin, declaring that Dr. Frank J. Goodnow, American adviser to President Yuan Shi Kai, had not advised the latter to take the throne as Emperor.

Seven notables have been condemned to death in Vienna for high treason. Among them is the Varkow deputy, Dr. Vladimir Kupilovich; two physicians, Dimitro Jancavski and a correspondent of the "Novoe Vremya" of Petrograd.

The Hawaiian Legislature has no more barchelors. Dr. G. H. Huddy, who for many sessions has been the lone representative of men's freedom, has married. He arrived in San Francisco yesterday with his bride, the former Mrs. Etta Sullivan, a wealthy widow of Honolulu.

Charles B. Alexander, regent of the New York University, and one of the leading attorneys of New York City, was the guest of honor last night at a dinner given by the New York commission at the New York building at the Exposition.

"I would sooner be a lamppost on Park Row than the Governor of California," declared Assemblyman Alfred E. Smith in the New York Constitutional convention last night.

Colonel John V. White of the Coast Artillery Corps stationed at Fort Hamilton, died yesterday. He ranked third in the chief coast artillery and was in charge of the coast artillery in the southern district of New York. Colonel White was 61 years old.

General Sam Hughes, Canadian minister of militia, was Knighted yesterday afternoon during an audience with King George in Buckingham Palace.

Freedom For Squirrels.

As far as the United States government is concerned squirrels may go ahead and burrow into crops and ditch banks in San Joaquin county as often as they please. Every inspector engaged in the recent eradicating plan here has been withdrawn by Supervising Inspector J. A. Gray.

This action was caused through the failure of the board of supervisors to put up the sum of $500 each month to pay the expenses of the squirrel killers. Some few months ago, Gray, together with a delegation of ranchers from about the county, appeared before the board and requested financial aid in the campaign. This was refused by the supervisors.—Stockton Mail.

THE STATE PRESS

Patterson Irrigator Libel.

A harnessmaker of Newman was married in Modesto last Saturday. In view of his trade the scribe was not far out of the way when he wrote "the couple are now on their bridle tour."

The above from the Patterson paper is a base libel, as the couple have not taken any "tour."—Newman Weekly Register.

Competent.

Miss Naomi Tompkins, who started as a stenographer in the First National Bank of Long Beach five years ago, has recently been made cashier. Miss Tompkins has been raised to her present position in the bank on account of her efficient and practical knowledge of every detail of the banking business.—Riverside Press.

Feeding Season.

During the past week 10,000 head of sheep were shipped to Stockton from Grant and Crook counties in Oregon to feed here during the summer and fall. The shipment was made in 53 cars at a cost of $4000. It is stated that several other shipments from Oregon to the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys will be made during the next few weeks.—Stockton Independent.

Grain Thieves Active.

Sheriff F. B. Noyes and Undersheriff Bennett Schilling are kept busy attempting to run down a number of grain thieves who are systematically raiding the ranches in various sections of the county, particularly near Live Oak. Every effort is being made to stop the continued thefts of grain, which is now valued at upwards of $2 a sack.—Marysville Appeal.

CANADIAN OIL REFINERY.

A refinery, with a first unit capacity of 500 barrels of oil a day, is to be established in the Calgary district by the Southern Alberta Refineries (Ltd.), head offices in Calgary, a company, capital $200,000, which has been organized to handle the product of the Southern Alberta Oil Co.'s well.

The refinery will probably be located at Sandstone, a few miles north of Okotoks, where there is a siding and the oil will be pumped through a pipe line from the well. The company has not yet purchased machinery for its refining plant, and is asking for prices and quotations.

Explorations for petroleum oils extending over a period of almost two years still continues, despite the check given to the development work by the war. It has not yet been conclusively demonstrated that petroleum oils exist in commercial quantities in the Province of Alberta, but the results so far seem to justify the continuance of intelligent and scientific operations.

A PRAYER FOR PEACE.

A. von Adelung.

Oh! Heavenly Father, Ruler of the Universe,
Who seeth all and knoweth all things best,
In thy infinite mercy bid all conflict cease
And give thy weary, war-stained children rest.
To crowned heads, and those in pow'r placed,
A tolerant spirit of forbearance send;
Show them the way to Glory does not lie
In clash of arms, nor power, nor warlike trend.
Lift from their eyes the war-red mist that hides
The horrors of this conflict from their view;
Cleanse from their hearts all hatred and mistrust,
And turn their thoughts to peaceful aims anew.
Silence the cries that fill the air today
With sounds of pain and sorrow near and far;
Oh, Merciful God, most fervently we pray—
Bring to an end this red, relentless war.

Oakland, Calif., August 21, 1915.

VARIETIES.

Singular Statutes.

The bust of the late Joseph Chamberlain, with an eye-glass, which has been unveiled at the Guildhall, London, reminds one of the statue of Francois Coppee in Paris, with a marble cigarette. There are two statues in Great Britain which deserve including in the catalogue of sculptured curiosities. One stands in the Central square of Glasgow, and represents the figure of James Oswald, M.P., holding his top hat upside down by the brim, as if he were offering to catch pennies. The other is the statue of Samuel Palmer, in the main street of Reading. The venerable biscuit maker has not only a chimney-pot of the period, but an umbrella of the true Sairey Gamp kind. Both statues often cause a smile.

Pigeons as War Photographers.

Cameras designed for taking military photographs by the aid of carrier pigeons are among the more out-of-the-way and ingenious devices which are being used by the Germans. Such a camera was, at all events, exhibited in Germany some years ago. The instrument was the invention of a Dr. Neubronner and weighed only 2½ ounces. It was fitted with a lens of only 2-inch focus and took a picture 1½ inches square. One model consisted of two distinct cameras, the lens of one pointing forward and that of the other pointing backward when the bird was in flight.

In another model eight pictures could be taken in succession on a band of film.

First "Great War" Monument.

The first monument to be erected on the battlefield in memory of those who have fallen in the present war is that now being completed at the extreme point reached by General von Kluck's army in the advance on Paris. It stands beside the Meux-Barcy road, near the first graves to be met with in this district. The monument, which is the work of territorial engineers, consists of a truncated stone pyramid, bearing the following inscription engraved in red letters on a gray marble slab: "To the memory of the soldiers of the Army of Paris, who fell for their country on the battlefield of Ourcq."

FACTS ABOUT WARSAW.

The capital of Russian Poland is 330 miles from Berlin and 700 from Petrograd.

Next to Moscow and Petrograd it is the largest city in the Russian empire.

Known on account of its busy industries as the "Manchester of Poland," it has a population of over 700,000, the chief industry being the manufacture of boots and leather goods. The turnover in boots and shoes amounts to about eight and a half millions sterling a year.

The population is very cosmopolitan. The Jews number about 300,000, Germans 30,000, with a sprinkling of British, Japanese and Chinese.

Few cities have been the scene of so much bloodshed as Warsaw. Russia has held the city since 1813, Austria and Germany having also occupied it. The city was awarded to Prussia at the third partition of Poland and held until Napoleon entered it in 1806. The Austrians seized Warsaw in April, 1809, but were turned out the following June.

Warsaw is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. It stands partly on terraces sloping up from the left bank of the Vistula, two iron bridges connecting the city with the suburb of Praga, on the right bank.

Its churches are magnificent, particularly the Cathedral of St. John. Altogether, there are over one hundred Catholic churches in the city, in addition to half a dozen Greek churches, two Lutheran ones, and many synagogues.

A great feature of Warsaw is its innumerable private palaces or mansions, while the university, which was suppressed in 1832 and reopened in 1864, has seventy-five professors and 1100 students.

WOULD TEACH TEACHERS OF SEX

Schools, Parents, Church, Not Yet Prepared to Instruct, Says Balliet.

"The necessity for the right kind of sex education is generally admitted. The only question is as to its nature and by what agencies it shall be given. A heavy responsibility rests upon the parent. Considerable responsibility rests upon the church. But it cannot be safely left to the parent and the church alone, as both have failed in the past, and many parents will always be incompetent to give it.

"The school, in some way not yet clearly devised, must ultimately do its share. Neither personal nor religious prejudices must be allowed to stand in the way of it. The school is not yet prepared to take it up except in very limited and guarded ways. Teachers are not trained for it and public sentiment is not educated up to it.

"Nothing would be more unfortunate than to have blind enthusiasts attempt to introduce such instruction generally at this time. It is a problem for educators to study. The time for action will come later."

Thus were the parent, church and school disposed of in their efforts to give the young a knowledge of sex, when Thomas M. Balliet, dean of the School of Pedagogy, New York University, took as his theme, "Sex Morality and Sex Hygiene as the Aim of Sex Education," before a general session of the N. E. A. today. Dr. Balliet continued:

"Much of the opposition to such instruction in schools has come from the assumption that it is to consist chiefly of a discussion of the biology and physiology of sex and that it is proposed to give it to mixed classes.

"On the contrary, such education must be made essentially a part of the instruction in hygiene and in ethics. Its motive, to be clearly impressed upon the pupil at every point, is the preservation of health and right moral living. The instruction must, however, not be dogmatic, but must be based on the well-established facts of science. All the biological and physiological facts to be taught must be taught solely as reasons for hygienic and pure living, and no scientific facts which do not serve this purpose should be taught.

PROBLEM FOR EDUCATORS.

"The scientific instruction must suggest the ten commandments. The problem is mainly a problem for the trained educator, not for the physician. Any educated person can easily master all the scientific facts to be taught; the chief difficulty is one of method. As in all ethical instruction, personality, judgment and tact are the principal factors.

"The aim of sex education must be the control of conduct, for the sake of health and morals, and the two are very closely related. It is therefore a problem, in the main, in moral education. It is a question, therefore, of developing in the pupil the forces which control conduct.

"One of the most effective factors of control is habit. Sex education in the case of the little child must protect him against the formation of wrong habits and against the street influences which beget such habits. Established habits of clean living in youth make such living comparatively easy later in life.

"Another factor of control is feeling. The feeling of modesty, or shame, is a powerful controling force, especially during the early years before conscience is strongly awakened. The feeling of chivalry and personal self-respect must also be cultivated as a means of control.

LITERATURE IS AID.

"A third factor of control is the attitude towards pure living inspired by high ideals and a proper conception of romantic affection as portrayed in literature by the great literary artists in its purest form.

"A powerful factor of control, as we all know, is enthusiastic play and enthusiastic work. Athletics on the one hand and interesting intellectual work on the other have proved extremely effective, and idleness either of mind or of body is a danger to morals.

"The factor often thought of as the only one is knowledge. Knowledge alone is often unable to control conduct. It is only one of the factors and all of them must co-operate to be effective.

"What shall this knowledge be? This is a crucial question.

"In case of the little child such knowledge should serve simply to satisfy a normal curiosity, which if it is not satisfied by the truth conveyed in a pure way will be satisfied by information which will pollute his soul. In case of the child of twelve, and in some cases earlier, he has a right to the knowledge which he needs to care for his health, and later the knowledge which will protect him against the quack doctor. In the upper teens the pupil has a right to know of the dangers of disease which immoral living may bring to innocent and guilty alike. This can be made the basis of a powerful appeal, not chiefly to fear, but especially to sympathy, and above all, to conscience.

HEREDITY A FACTOR.

"To the above should be added a knowledge of the most salient facts of heredity, and a study of the family with all its beautiful and sacred relations as the highest and holiest expression of the meaning of sex. This, again, can be made the basis of an effective appeal to heart and conscience."

MUST BE WISDOM'S AVATAR

Informally, unofficially, but none the less excitedly, delegates to the National Education Association today discussed Dr. David Starr Jordan's list of requirements necessary to make a successful college president. Dr. Jordan's list of eighteen university faculty commandments, as he gave them to an enthusiastic audience last night, follow:

The college president must be a liar, since he cannot tell all he knows about those around him.

He must have 400 or 500 words handy to "let loose" on suitable occasions, for the purpose of awakening echoes in the minds of his hearers.

He must not do anything he can hire some one else to do. If the professors cannot take care of the delinquent students, etc., he advocates a new professor.

He must have initiative.

He must "fix it" so that his board of trustees can only indorse or reject his recommendations.

He must be very moral, since his example counts greatly.

He must not be too clubable.

He must not be too convivial.

He must be unselfish, because his students can see through a selfish master every time.

He must be a scholar to the extent that he knows truth from untruth.

He must be able to pick a scholar when he sees one.

He must know some things, since everybody in time comes to believe he knows all and is infallible.

He must not back down on any problem, but must "carry out the bluff."

He must not "pass the buck" to the trustees.

He must be frank.

He must not boast that sending a football team several thousand miles to play a game is for "the good of the university."

He is believed to be a slave, because of the varied influences brought to bear in matters he handles.

He must not show weakness or be arbitrary.

CALLS CHILD LABOR BANE OF NATION

Production of Adequate Humans Most Important Business, Woman Adds.

Anathematizing war and child labor, Mrs. C. C. Bradford, state superintendent of public instruction in Denver, told the assembled Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teachers' Association that "the production of adequate human beings is the important business of the nation."

"We must have peace," she stated warmly, "in order that the United States may care for its children. I think that child labor is the greatest indictment that posterity will be able to bring against our American civilization of today."

During her talk on what might be done by such associations as she addressed, Mrs. Bradford said that our system of education had not yet proved a complete success. For part of the "failure of the American public school to perform to the ultimate its function in turning out adequate, educated human beings," she blamed the American home.

"Too often," she asserted, "the ideal of the home is in direct conflict with that of the school. How confusing to the moral sense of the child to discover that his mother's and teacher's ideas of what is right or important vitally disagree. Our schools are too unrelated to our home life. I would bring much of the methods of the well-ordered home into the school, and a very little of the best school method into the home."

Preceding Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Hubert N. Rowell told of the welfare work carried on by the National Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teachers' Association. Mrs. Rowell, as president of the state branch, presided at the meeting which concluded with a plea from Miss Clara S. Brown, superintendent of Pomona kindergartens, for co-operation between kindergartners and kindergarten mothers.

CRUISER TO JOIN FLEET.

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—The United States armored cruiser Tennessee passed in the Delaware breakwater this morning from Annapolis and will arrive at the Philadelphia navy yard late this afternoon. After taking on stores, medicines, coal and ammunition the cruiser will proceed to Haiti to join the fleet under command of Rear-Admiral Caperton.

DR. CLAXTON URGES NATIONAL COLLEGE

Would Have It Open to Students of World, Is Peace Plan.

"I would like to see a magnificent university founded at Washington, D. C., with an annual appropriation of $10,000,000, so that a thousand of the best professors could be gathered to teach boys and girls from all parts of the world," said Philander P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education yesterday in an address before the American School Peace League.

"Such a school would bring pupils from all parts of the world, young men and women, eager to be taught, and who would carry back to their countries the doctrines of right and truth and brotherly love and I tell you now, they would be a big factor in bringing world peace. The annual cost of such a school as I have suggested would be less than a warship."

The board of managers of the American School Peace League sat down to its annual luncheon, with Dr. David Starr Jordan as toastmaster and many distinguished and famous teachers, writers and peace advocates as guests. Many foreign countries were represented and introduced individually. Behind the toastmaster was a great American flag with streamers carrying the flags of all nations.

Dr. Jordan reiterated the statement made several times during the present sessions of the International Congress on Education by him that "peace through education is the way." He approved the Claxton idea in a measure, by declaring that the many hundreds of Japanese students who had graduated from American institutions of learning were a big factor in preserving strong bonds of peace and amity between their country and this one.

Edwin Markham spoke for peace and recited one of his recent poems, "The Chant of the Vultures." Other speakers were Dr. David Bancroft Johnson; Dr. John John Mez of Frieberg, German, who declared that universal peace is bound to come because the strongest men and women want it; Miss Margaret Schallenberger, head of the primary grades of the California Bureau of Education; Mrs. Alice McKay Kelly, who has been engaged in educational work in the Philippines; Mrs. J. Malcolm Forbes, a clubwoman of Boston; Edward Berwick, noted peace advocate of Pacific Grove; Mrs. Fannie Fern Andrews of Boston, secretary of the league, and James W. Foley, newspaper humorist, who read one of his late poems.

Guatemalan Educator Addresses Convention

Frederico Saenz de Trejado, in his address before the National Congress of Education Associations in general session today said regarding eduaction in Guatemala and his mission here;

"One of the aims of the program for the civilization and progress of the nation which, since the distinguished statesman, Hon. Manuel Estrada Cabrera, LL. D., assumed the first magistracy of the Republic it has been his endeavor to develop, is the improvement and elevation of the people by means of education and instruction, in the firm conviction that on these depends the greatness of a nation. He, therefore, hastened to accept with pleasure the courteous invitation which he received from the Government of the United States to assist at this learned reunion.

"Through an unmerited distinction, for which I can never be sufficiently grateful, the honor has been conferred upon me of being nominated the representative of my country."

Some of the most prominent men in the county are named in indictments. The charges range from maltreatment to murdering a negro. The regulators advanced as a reason for their action in one case that the victims lacked industry and thrift.

EDUCATORS IN GENERAL SESSION

Parent Organization olds Forth All Day at Municipal Auditorium.

A general session of the National Educational Association is being held at the Auditorium today, all subsidiary associations of the main organization having given it precedence on the program. Tonight the association for the promotion of the Civic Education of Adults through the Wider Use of School Houses will meet in Scottish Rite Hall at 8 p. m.

With David Starr Jordan presiding and David B. Johnson, newly elected president of the N. E. A., occupying a seat of honor on the speaker's platform, the session was opened by Anton H. Appleman, representative of the Prussian Kul tusministerium, in an address on "German's Recent Progress in Secondary Education."

Prof. L. F. Tao of the University of Peking took the place on the program of Cora Wilson Stewart, who was unable to come here from her home in Frankfort, Ky. The subject was "Elimination of Illiteracy." Thomas M. Balliet, dean of the School of Pedagogy, New York University, had as his theme, "Sex Morality and Sex Hygiene as the Aim of Sex Education." Frederick Saenz de Trejada, assistant chief of the Protocol Bureau of the department of Foreign Affairs, Guatemala, spoke on "Education in Guatemala." This concluded the morning's session.

Professor Appleman said:

GERMAN EFFICIENCY.

"Germany's progress in secondary education lies mainly in the improvement of the instruction, the teaching staff and the subjects taught. The progress in the system is represented particularly in the real-and-reform institutions, all of which are fully recognized by the Government.

"The girls' secondary schools lately received the government's special attention, and very progressive changes took place.

"Besides the governmental schools there are very progressive private secondary institutions—the Yanderziehungsheime, Odenwaldschule, Freie Schulgemeinde, Waldschule and especially Otto's 'Hauslhrerschule.'

"Goethe had his lifelong dream of a "Pantheon of the World's Literature." It has not been realized and probably never will be. Poetry and literature bear a national and local character, but science, learning and education are international and cosmopolitan and the more they become so the more efficient they will be. With the co-operation and assistance of all countries and educators a building for which this great nation can claim to have laid the cornerstone by assembling this International Congress on Education may be erected: The Pantheon of Education with similar or equal international ideas and ideals out of which must grow what we are looking for—the mutual understanding between nations and peoples."

The afternoon's program was opened by Kiyo Sue Inui, secretary of the Japanese Society of America, who spoke on "Education of Japanese in America."

Frank L. Crone, director of the Philippine Bureau of Education, spoke on Public Instruction in the Philippines, giving a description of work done by the government.

Sidney L. Gulick, lecturer of Imperial University at Kyoto, Japan, told of education in Japan.

Michael E. Sadler Chancellor of the University of Leeds, England, took the place of Enrique Loynaz del Castillo, who was to have talked on "Education in Cuba."

The program of this evening's general session follows:

Music—High School Band.

Agricultural Education—Henry J. Waters, president Kansas State Agricultural College, Manhattan, Kans.

Education and Race Improvement—S. J. Holmes, University of California, Berkeley, Cal.

Agricultural Education in Normal Schools—David B. Johnson president Winthrop Normal and Industrial College, Rock Hills, S. C.

Ideal Education the Forerunner of Universal Peace—Mirza Ali Kuli Khan, Commissioner for Persia, Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, California.

Netherlands' Influence on the Public-School System of the United States—H. A. van C. Torchiana, Commissioner-General for the Netherlands, Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, California.

JOHN BARRETT CONSPICUOUS BY ABSENCE

Director of Pan-American Union Fails to Appear at N. E. A. Feast.

After waiting almost the entire evening for John Barrett, head of the Pan-American Union, to put in an appearance, Owen E. Hotle, toastmaster at the banquet given last night by the Commercial Club to the visitors here from foreign countries, was forced to apologize for the gentleman from Washington and dismiss the love feast.

Mayor John L. Davie welcomed the distinguished foreigners and Dr. David Starr Jordan gave one of his short, epigramatic speeches of felicitation in which many laughs were contained. Edmund Clifton, representing New Zealand, spoke briefly on general topics of international amity and peace. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, responded to the toast "The International Congress on Education," and Reuben B. Hale of San Francisco told about the Exposition and what it meant to California and the world. Occasonally the eyes of the toastmaster and the members of the committee and the Commercial Club officials would wander from their watch dials to the door, expecting the effervescent John Barrett, the speaker "without terminal facilities," but they were disappointed.

EAST AND WEST MEET.

Many foreign men and women, distinguished in their home countries, were the special guests of the Commercial Club. Among them were: Stephan Paranetoff, Bulgarian minister to the United States; Jose Miguel Rosales, Colombia; Luis Felipe Gonzales, Costa Rica; Frederico Saenz de Tejada, Guatemala; Ferdinand Buisson, France; Adolfo Bonilla San Martin, Spain; Z. T. Nyi, China; Mirza Ali Kuli Khan, Persia; John Mez, Germany; Jiro Harada, Japan; Enrique Castillo, Cuba; F. Drion, Belgium.

The visitors were seated according to the order of precedence followed by the State Department at functions, and it was so managed that a Californian was seated to the right of every visitor.

Refused Firewater, He Turns Firebug, Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—David Urie, just released from a thirty-day vagrancy term at the county jail, was arrested last night following an alleged attempt to burn a hotel owned by Mrs. Annie Thompson on the waterfront. Urie, refused drinks, it is charged, was setting fire to a bed when captured by Edmund Rolph and John Kearney, two residents of the place. He was turned over to the police.

According to Mrs. Thompson, whose hotel and bar are at 262 Embarcadero, Urie entered the saloon, demanding drinks and when refused went into the hotel threatening revenge. Later Rolph and Kearney, smelling smoke, made an investigation and found him apply matches to a mattress. Urie was booked at the city prison.

Statue Will Rest On Stones of Prison

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A statue of Joan of Arc astride her charger in bronze, to be erected at Riverside Drive and Ninety-third street, will rest upon a pedestal made from the stones of her prison at Rouen, France. The cost of the monument will be about $25,000 and has been raised by private subscription.

The section of the dungeon of the heroine of France, purchased and brought here after the French government had failed to preserve it, includes 229 blocks of limestone. Anna Vaughn Hyatt designed the statue.

FOREMAN NEAR DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Little hope is held out for the recovery of Edwin G. Foreman, Chicago banker, who is at the Adler Sanitarium following an accident of several days ago. Physicians this morning announced that the patient's condition was very low.

Bulgarians Not Favoring Turks

Would Not War on Russ Says Minister

"Two things Bulgaria will never do in the European struggle—she will never fight against Russia and she will never fight on the side of the Turks."

Commenting on dispatches stating that Bulgaria had signed a contract of benevolent neutrality with Turkey in return for the privilege of sending traffic through Turkish country to the Aegean sea, Dr. Stephen Penaretoff, minister to the United States from Bulgaria, said this today. He said while Turkey had conceded this right to the Bulgarians there was no truth in the report that his country had bound herself to the Turks by any neutrality pact.

The statesman and educator is a delegate from his country to the Congress of Education here.

"Bulgaria is now neutral," said Dr. Penaretoff, "because her interests demand that she be so.

"Six weeks ago the Turks were interfering with Bulgarian traffic to the Aegean sea, and even with tourist travel, to the point of holding up goods and of searching passengers.

"No traveler was allowed to leave Turkey with more than $44 in gold in his possession. Further than this, the entire personnel of the railroad service was changed on the entrance to Turkish territory, and the Bulgarian trainmen were barred out.

"Conditions became so unbearable that Bulgaria stopped all commerce through Turkish country to the Aegean.

"Now the Turks, who suffered more by this than did the Bulgars, have opened up the country to us and are allowing Bulgarian men to continue on the trains straight to the sea.

"That is about all the truth there is to these dispatches."

As to Bulgaria aligning her forces with those of Turkey and against the allies, Dr. Penaretoff said that since it was to Russia that Bulgaria owed, in some measure, her present liberty, she would never fight against her benefactor.

On the other hand, the Bulgarian frontier had formerly extended down to Constantinople, and the Turks had taken this territory from its rightful owners, said Dr. Penaretoff.

Hit Landlord, But Is Held Not Guilty

Police Judge Samuels this morning held that a man was not guilty of battery for striking another man when he attempted to break down the door to a bedroom in which his wife and four children were sleeping. This decision was rendered in the case of Samuel Homewood, who had been arrested on a charge of battery on complaint of George Schindler.

Schindler is the owner of property at 510 Eighteenth street, where Homewood resided. The testimony in court showed that Schindler had ordered Homewood to move. The latter was doing so when Schindler appeared on the premises and declared that he was not moving with sufficient alacrity.

"Schindler tried to get into the bedroom," Homewood told the court. "I told him my wife and four children were in there, in bed, but he tried to break down the door; I hit him and knocked him down."

"That's not battery," said Judge Samuels. "The case is dismissed."

Puzzle in Murder of Pro-German Pastor

GARY, Ind., Aug. 25.—The Rev. Edmund Kayser, pastor of St. James Evangelical Lutheran Church in the suburbs of Tolleston, was murdered late last night as he sat in his study. Members of his family were absent.

Mr. Kayser's pro-German utterances in a community which includes many Slavs are believed by the police to provide a motive of the crime. Money and jewelry on his person and in the house were not disturbed.

The Rev. Mr. Kayser was born in Bavaria 40 years ago. A month ago he appealed to Chief of Police Heintz for permission to carry a revolver. For weeks members of his congregation escorted him to and from his church.

Commercial Club to Have Football Team

Today saw the opening of the Commercial club training table. Nothing but the foods prescribed for athletes appeared and business men ate bone and muscle builders and discussed football. It is planned to organize both a football and baseball team at the club, several old-time college stars being among the business men who meet there and already a tentative baseball schedule is being laid out.

The Commercial club last year put a championship baseball team in the field. Most of the old players will be on this year's team, in addition to which the old manufacturers' committee team, with such stars as "Shorty" Sturgis, "Four Eye" Preston, and others to draw upon.

CHANGE IN EVENING N. E. A. MEETING PLACE

Secretary Springer of the N. E. A. announced that this evening's general session will be held in the ballroom at Hotel Oakland instead of in the arena of the Municipal Auditorium. Friday's meeting of the National Educational Congress will also be held in the ball room.

Every Man and Woman May Grow Old Gracefully

A new and wonderful glass has been invented called "Caltex," which does away with the handicap of two pairs of glasses and enables one to see both far and near as well as in youth—it can truthfully be said, puts a person back in the "young class." DEATH ENDS TREASURE HUNT

Last Minute Discovery Saves Frank M. Krebs From Pauper's Grave.

Frank M. Krebs, whose body would have filled an unnamed pauper's grave yesterday but for the accidental last-minute discovery of his name on $600 in travelers' checks sewed in the lining of his clothing, was about to leave on a hunt for treasure trove in the South American countries when death cut short his plans, according to advices which the coroner's office today received from San Bernardino.

Krebs was found by police officers at Nineteenth and Grove streets last Saturday night, in an unconscious condition. He died without having regained consciousness at the emergency hospital a few hours later. The body was removed to the morgue, where an autopsy showed that death was due to heart trouble induced by acute alcoholism. Ragged clothes covered his body, and no mark of identification could be found.

He was to have been buried in the potters' field yesterday when Clyde Drennan, chief deputy coroner, made one more search of his clothing. He found the $600 in travelers' checks sewed into the lining of the waistcoat. They were on the San Bernardino National Bank, and Drennan immediately telegraphed to H. H. Weir, the teller.

Weir answered that Krebs had left San Bernardino three weeks ago after having successfully planned an expedition into Death Valley, in search of the tusks of prehistoric animals. Weir wired that Krebs had had considerable dealings with the bank, and that he had received numerous drafts from the east just prior to his departure for Oakland. Before leaving the southern city he told friends that he was about to leave for South America to seek hidden gold.

No trace has as yet been found of the dead man's relatives. The remains are being held while local and San Bernardino officials are continuing the search. An inquest will be held tomorrow evening.

National Defenses Are Urged by Burton

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 25.—Former United States Senator Theodore Burton of Ohio, who is mentioned as a possible head for the Republican ticket in the next Presidential election, spoke yesterday at the Panama-California Exposition on "Greater America." A crowd of 10,000 persons heard him.

Asked concerning his views on national defense, he said:

> "National defenses should receive immediate and earnest attention. I say this as an advocate of peace, not of war. We cannot tell in these days what situations will arise. We should strive in every way that we can to maintain peace, but nevertheless we should remember that there is the possibilit of war being forced upon us and should therefore bend our energies toward being prepared, not for aggression, but for defense."

Senator Burton has for years been an advocate of peace between nations and has been known as a worker for smaller armaments.

Long-Distance Performers Nerved for Big Struggle

Many of Saturday Stars Will Stay Over for The Tribune Race

One of the best "movie" operators in the country has been secured by the Oakland Photo Theater to film the coming Tribune "Merritt Marathon" which will be run around Lake Merritt on the morning of Admission day, September 9. Every detail of the race will be taken, and the film will show the officials, the cheering crowd at the finish, individual pictures of the winners and those who finish close up. This film will be hastily developed and then shown every day at the handsome and commodious Oakland Photo Theater. There the athletes and their friends can gather and watch themselves as "others saw them."

Long distance performance, seventeen in all and representing all parts of the United States are to vie with each other at the Exposition Saturday in an Olympic marathon run, meaning that each lad must travel 26 miles and 385 yards before the final tape is reached.

Some real luminaries are down for Saturday's race. Edouard Fabre, winner of last year's Boston Marathon, a race considered the most important of its kind in the United States figures to be among those coming out in front. Fabre also finished second to K. K. McArthur at the Olympian games in Stockholm three years ago.

Clifton Horne, Dorchester Athletic Club, who finished second to Fabre in the Boston classic is also entered, and so is Oliver Millard, the 1914 winner of THE TRIBUNE Marathon and the lad who made a still greater name for himself by running Hans Kohlemainen off his feet in the A. A. U. five mile race held at the Exposition a few weeks back.

New York has entered some marvelous long distance runners in the persons of Nick Giancopolis, Charley Pores and Mike Honohan. These boys have won meets in the East with great regularity and are classed among the greatest marathoners in the world. Berney Wefers, the joint holder of the 220-yard record and a former sprinter is handling Honohan and he predicts that his boy is going to make a runaway race of it from the start to the finish.

Several of the lads who are to race Saturday have signified their intention of running in THE TRIBUNE Marathon race which is scheduled for September 9, the course to be twice around Lake Merritt. A great effort will be made to hold the Easterners here for THE TRIBUNE Marathon and the local marathon race admirers will possibly have an opportunity of seeing the winners of Saturday's races in action again. THE TRIBUNE race is only 6¼ miles long and the fact that this distance is much easier to run than a race of longer distance figures to spur several lesser luminaries on to capture the several handsome trophies which THE TRIBUNE has provided for the race winners. The entries for Saturday's race are as follows:

Charles Pores, Nick Gianakopoules, Millrose Athletic Club, New York city; Edouard Fabre, Richmond Athletic Club, Montreal; Clifton Horne, Dorchester Athletic Club, Boston; H. G. Dobler, Mystic Athletic Club, Chicago; Mike Honohan, New York Athletic Club; Pat Coyne, Holy Cross Lyceum, New York; Osa Smythe, Catholic Club, New Orleans; Manuel Cooper, Chicago Hebrew Institute; A. Monteverde, Carmel, N. Y.; Sydney Hatch, Illinois Athletic Club; James Foreshaw, Missouri Athletic Club, St. Louis; W. J. Heavind, Farralone City, Cal.; F. S. Williams, Oliver Millard, Olympic Club; W. O. Johnson, unattached, San Francisco.

'Lefty' Williams Will Come Close to Gregg's Record

Little Salt Lake Southpaw Is Fanning Ten Men a Week

Lefty Williams of Salt Lake may not break the season strikeout record made by Vean Gregg of Portland in 1910, when he fanned a total of 376 batters, but Williams will come closer to it than any other pitcher in the league has come in the last five years. For in the first twenty-one weeks of the season Williams had averaged better then ten strikeouts a week and was showing improvement in the last couple of months. But even at his seasonal average of ten strikeouts a week, Williams should finish well above the 300 mark. Up to Monday, August 23, Williams had a total of 211 strikeouts, only one shy of the 1914 season record made by Klepfer of Venice, who fanned 212 last year.

Last month Williams was 51 ahead of Clinton Prough of Oakland, his nearest rival for strikeout honors. This month Fanning of San Francisco has crowded Prough out of second place, but even at that, Williams has increased his lead over his nearest rival to 67 strikeouts. Last month the six leaders in strikeouts were: Williams of Salt Lake, 156; Prough, Oakland, 105; Fanning, San Francisco, 102; Love, Los Angeles, 98; Klawitter, Oakland, 96; Hughes, Los Angeles, 94. This month the same six pitchers are leading in strikeouts and the only change in their order is Fanning's ascent into second place and Prough's descent to third place. This month the leaders rank as follows in total strikeouts: Williams, 211; Fanning, 144; Prough, 140; Love, 123; Klawitter, 115; Hughes, 115.

Slim Love of Los Angeles has issued 95 walks, but is closely pressed by Hall of Salt Lake for generosity honors, Hall having passed 94 batsmen. Pruiett of Oakland has walked 87 men, Higginbotham of Portland has walked 82, and Williams of Salt Lake is next on the list with a total of 80 walks.

Shotputter Pruiett can hit batters as well as chorus girls, for he has hit more batters than any other pitcher. Pruiett has hit 22 batters; Gregory of Salt Lake has hit 13, and Lush of Portland has hit 12.

Hughes takes first honors for wild men, having made 14 wild pitches. Hall of Salt Lake and Ryan of Los Angeles are tied for second honors, each having made 11 wild pitches.

Piercey of Vernon, with three balks, and Kahler of Portland, with two, are the only pitchers on whom more than one balk has been called.

Following records show strikeouts, bases on balls, hit batters, wild pitches, and balks on each pitcher's record sheet for the first 21 weeks of the season up to and including games of August 22.

VERNON GETS OFF TO FLYING START; SEAL RALLY FAILS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 25. — Vernon fell upon Cavet in the first inning and got a flying start which gave them the game with San Francisco, 6 to 3. Two hits, a walk and an error off Cavet brought four runs for the Tigers in that inning. Their other runs came in the third on three singles and an error. The Seals started a batting rally in the ninth but could not get up. They managed to fill the bases with two out and young Piercey took up the pitching burden. Jerry Downs came to the bat in the pinch but weakened under the strain and made an easy third out. Harry Ables, former Oak, joined the Seals here today. The score:

ATHENS TO RACE SEAFARER.

Over the Exposition course the first of a series of match races will be sailed this afternoon between L. A. Norris' schooner yacht Seafarer and E. Carlton Miller's yacht Athens. These are the two biggest sailing pleasure craft on the bay.

Why You Should Enter the Marathon on September 9

Every athlete in Alameda county and adjoining territory should enter The Tribune marathon, September 9, at 10 a. m.

THE OAKLAND PHOTO THEATER WILL TAKE A MAGNIFICENT "MOVIE" OF THE ENTIRE RACE AND WILL SHOW IT THE WEEK FOLLOWING AT ITS COMMODIOUS PLAYHOUSE.

Gold and diamond medals for the first three to finish the race.

Handsome solid silver and embossed medals for next seven men across the line.

SOLID SILVER BADGE FOR ALL FINISHING WITHIN THE TIME LIMIT OF ONE HOUR.

GOLD BAR FOR THOSE ALREADY HOLDING TWO SILVER BARS AND WHO FINISH WITHIN TIME LIMIT AGAIN.

Special medals for first "Y" runner, first high school runner and outside county boy to finish outside of other medal winners.

The race is open to all amateurs 16 years of age or over.

The race will be the greatest of its kind ever held in California and it will cost you nothing to enter.

The race will be twice around Lake Merritt—a smooth, level, easy course, where local boys can practice every evening and in the early mornings.

Oliver Millard's winning time last year was 33 minutes 25 seconds. You can still finish almost a half hour behind that time and yet win a silver bar. Perhaps you can beat that time.

Two hundred boys are going to try, why not YOU?

NEW YORK, Aug. 25. — The Grand Circuit race meet which was to begin August 31 at the Empire City track in Yonkers will not take place, according to a statement by a director today of the Empire City Racing Association. DATE SET FOR GERMANIA CLUB SHOOTING MEET Schutzenverein Day at the International Shooting Festival Next Thursday.

Germania Schuetzenverein Day at the International Shooting Tournament in Shellmound Park on Thursday, August 26, promises to be one of the most successful affairs, judging by the number of marksmen registering for the various events which are scheduled for that day.

As was the case on San Francisco Schuetzenverein day, most of the local shooters and those from the bay cities will participate. President F. F. Rathjens, who was mainly instrumental in landing this big festival for San Francisco, is very well pleased with the present status of things and predicts this tournament to be the most successful ever held west of the Rocky mountains. His able board of directors is lending him valuable assistance and under his able leadership is more than ever confident to make this festival an affair which in its splendor and grandeur will hardly ever be surpassed by any that may follow.

Some of the organizations which will participate in Thursday's Germania Schuetzenverein day shoot are: Red Men Schuetzen Club, Norddeutscher Schuetzen Club, The Nationals, Kriegerverein Schuetzen, Independent Rifles, Germania Schuetzen Club, Eintracht Schuetzen Club, California Shuetzen Club, S. F.; Turner Schuetzen Section, S. F.; Schuetzen Verein, Shellmound Rifle and Pistol Club.

The 3-inch bull's eye target, which has been added proves to be quite an attraction. The prizes set out for this target will be published next week. The Nationals are displaying a lively interest in the military events on the program and have entered three teams.

Minor details have still to be arranged before the various police teams will be ready to enter the contest. Work is progressing and before long some of our finest will show their skill on the pistol and revolver range.

Shooting will begin Thursday and Saturday at 1 o'clock p. m. and on Sun- [illegible]

FAST HORSES ARE CARDED TODAY FOR TEST OF SPEED

The much heralded Loftus who in the judgment of horsemen and followers of the game that were at the Denver and Reno race meetings disputes with Geo. Wingfield's grand pair, Selesta and Scarlet Oaks, the right to be considered the best horse at the exposition track, will make his first public appearance in California this afternoon, his owners having accepted the weight assigned him in the five and one-half furlong handicap, which features an attractive card.

The Denver contingent among owners and trainers seen here are unanimous in pronouncing the Daniels and Hodge crack an exceptionally good horse.

Figuring from the Forum Book he would certainly have to be accounted the champion, despite the fact that Scarlet Oaks' beat him in their only meeting for that was the only defeat he sustained out of four starts, and in his other races he beat about all the other good ones that raced at the meeting at both sprint and distance racing. More than that, he was away slowly in his race with Scarlet Oaks and then forced the Wingfield mare to run five and one-half furlongs in 1:05 4-5 to beat him a length. He is some sprinter all right, but the three named to go against him—Orange Blossom, Kootenay and Seneca—are no slouches themselves at the sprinting game, and each of them has the distinction now of having won his last time out. Loftus has met and defeated Seneca and Kootenay twice, but each has a considerable advantage over him today in the matter of weights, and either or both may turn the scales on him, while it is at least possible that Orange Blossom can carry her dazzling speed the entire route and take them all into camp. This handicap looks to give promise of the most interesting race of the meeting to date. The mile selling dash which follows it is also certain to be of more than ordinary interest to the track's patrons, as it will have about it a suggestion of a renewal of the exposition handicap.

[illegible] Rash and John Graham, who divided the purse in the opening day's stake event will again try conclusions at the same distance with Zorvaster, a shifty plater when at himself, to add to the uncertainty of its result. Big [illegible] are in evidence in the other races, and the horses in them are well enough matched to insure plenty of contention in them.

SERIES IS EVENED.

Verona evened up the series with Livermore by winning Sunday's game. The series now stands two all. Errors figured prominently in yesterday's game. With two gone in the second frame, an easy grounder rolled through De Lucchie's legs, allowing two runs to score. A hit, another error accounted for two more in the same inning. De Lucchie made up for his bobble with some fast fielding and good base running. Score:

SEALS ARE FOND OF OAK PITCHERS

Harry Ables is going back to his first Coast league boss, Harry Wolverton. The big southpaw who was released Monday by Rowdy Elliott, immediately applied to Wolverton for a job, and the latter replied by telegraph from Los Angeles: "Come on at once." Ables is today in Los Angeles garbed as a Seal. Whether he will have better luck than other Oak hurlers who have been picked up by the Seals only to be discarded again remains to be seen. Perritt, Killilay, Christian, Le Claire and other flingers were all signed by the Seals after the Oaks released them.

Ables may prove a winning pitcher with the heavy-hitting Seals to rely on.

BUCCANEERS WIN, 5-4.

Three double plays, W. Clark to C. Clark to Works, enabled the Buccaneers to defeat the crack Johnson Tailor team Sunday by a score of 5 to 4 in a hotly-contested game which took eleven innings to decide. Smith's safety in the eleventh inning, which scored Oakley, broke up the game. Smith also pounded out a homer and a double. Score:

The Hub Nutters played true to form Sunday and took a fast and interesting game from the South Side Outlaws, at Visitacion Valley. NUNES LOOKS FOR HARDEST BOUT OF CAREER TONIGHT

Will Meet Frank Luscher in Main Event of West Oakland Show.

Johnny Nunes doesn't believe that there is a boy his equal in the lightweight class of the local amateur game, but of them all, Nunes gives Frank Luscher the biggest chance. The two are carded to go four rounds in the main event of tonight's show, and if one is to take Johnny's word for it, Luscher will give him the hardest battle he has got in a long time. Luscher has proven his superiority over every boy in the local game with the exception of Pete Tavas and Johnny Nunes, and he has been working like a trojan to get into shape to turn the trick on the latter for the past two weeks. Luscher admits that Tavas has his goat, but against Nunes he is confident, and with both the boys holding the opinion that they are going to win, it looks like one or the other is going to have a hard time to loosen his opponent from that belief.

There are eight bouts on tonight's program, and if the fans do not get all the scrap they want Tommy Simpson will be a much surprised man. Tommy has been matching scrappers since days of the twenty rounders in Oakland, and he konws a scrap when he sees it. Well, Tommy's opinion of tonight's card is that it will be a long time before he will be able to round up such a good one again for the fans.

"There are only a certain number of good scrappers available," said Simpson, "and only a certain number of good combinations can be made out of them. I have been hooking up different combinations until I believe that I have the best one yet on tonight's program."

Pete Francis and Joe Ketchel will head a list of three special events. Francis is a hard hitting boy from West Oakland and has a reputation for putting them away, while Ketchel is known to the fans as an equally hard hitter. Neither of the boys are especially careful on the defensive, and it looks as if one or probably both will take a walloping.

Whitey Smith and Kid Williams are the next two on the list. They are feathers, and fully on a par with Jimmy Dundee, champion of that division. In the last show Smith held Dundee to a draw, and really had a shade of the going, while Williams is a climber in the 122-pound division. The "Kid" is a clever boxer, and a surprisingly hard hitter for a small boy.

Joe Herrera and Johnny Vieira will combine cleverness with hitting ability in what promises to be a slam-bang affair. Vieira's chief claim to honors lies in his gameness. He is handled by his brother Manuel, and always puts up a good battle.

The preliminaries will furnish four good battles. Jimmy Magill and Jimmy Kelly head the list. The former has been trying for some time to get a bout with bantamweight champion Jimmy Duffy, but the latter doesn't seem to want to meet the West Oaklander. Simpson would like to stage the match, but Duffy insists that Magil beat Kelly first. If he gets by Kelly this time, Duffy has agreed to go on with him, so it is certain that both boys will be scrapping hard for that privilege. Battling Keyrose, who fought such a hard uphill battle against Duffy at the last show will meet Danny Edwards, the hard-hitting little colored boy from West Oakland. Harry Fitzgerald vs. Jimmy Casey and Jack Gomez vs. Spider Webb completes the card.

The Berkeley Merchants won from the California Ink players Sunday by heavy hitting and because of superior battery work of Hann and Sanford allowing but

FINE FINISHES FEATURE DAY ON EXPOSITION TRACK

Metropolitan Outclasses His Field in Most Pretentious Race of Afternoon.

The crowd which visited the Exposition race track yesterday afternoon had no cause for complaint on the score of the article of sport that was served up to them. From a viewpoint of the spectacular the racing left little to be desired, hair-raising finishes of the driving order being much in evidence throughout the afternoon. There were, however, two very marked exceptions to what proved to be the rule in this particular. In the seven furlong selling dash which called out the afternoon's most pretentious field, Metropolitan on fast performances looked to outclass the half dozen opposed to him and the result of the race bore out that notion. Sweet Bait had all his speed of the previous day and essayed to set the pace, but it was very evident that Metropolitan could take him whenever it was desired and when Gross let him down turning for home, the son of Filigrane shot away from the others and was off by himself in the easiest kind of fashion. Sweet Bait's effort to keep pace with the winner settled whatever chance he may have had of getting any part of the purse for in the run home Canepa and Darkey had it between them for the smaller divisions of the purse.

Eureka proved just as easy a winner in the second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs. The son of Trappean showed to be possessed of a very high turn of speed for going to the front with a rush he set a sizzling pace all the way and fairly made a show of his opposition, winning by four lengths in the fast time of 1:06 4-5. His victory was not a surprise to the talent, and Aunt Elsie was nearest to him at the finish just as they had the race figured out. The only struggle was that for "booby" prize, and Old Bob who was on his good behavior lasted long enough to save it from the fast closing Tom Chipman.

Tordillo was supposed to be something of a cinch in the opener, but Old Sorrowful camped on his trail to the head of the stretch challenged him for keeps a furlong out, and outgamed him in a drive, scoring a head victory with Rhodes in third place two lengths back.

The race for 2-year-olds also furnished a thriller. Brooks tore out as if to make a run away race of it, and straightened out for home with a three lengths lead, from Toastmaster, but after going wide in the stretch, just did last to win by a head. Toastmaster was caught in a jam but saved ground on the rail, and driving to the limit beat Laughing Water by a small margin for second money.

Another hair-raising finish came from the fifth race. Miss Folly, Miss Clark and Master Franklin raced as a team until well in the stretch. Then Miss Clark weakened and the other two fought it out to the end, Miss Folly getting the decision by a short head.

OUTLAWS WIN, 10-4.

GOSSIP of STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS IN UNIVERSITY TOWN

SOCIAL & PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of DAY in the ISLAND CITY

SAYS U. C. SLIGHTS WOMEN STUDENTS

Senior Editor of New Campus Paper Stirs Discussion With Complaint.

BERKELEY, Aug. 25. — Complaints made by Miss Elsie McCormick, a prominent senior student, that the faculty of the University of California discriminates constantly against the women students, has aroused much discussion on the campus today. Arguments against Miss McCormick's stand are offered almost in as great frequency as other arguments in her support.

Miss McCormick's criticism is contained in a contribution to Student Opinion, a new student publication. She writes under the heading "The Unwelcome Feminine," and makes these claims:

The women were ignored by President Wheeler in his address to freshmen at the meeting in the Greek theater.

An English professor dismissed all but men from one of his clases because it wa overcrowded.

College women who dress fashionable or use face powder are not considered to be in college with "a steady purpose."

Student Opinion is avowedly issued for the frank discussion of campus problems and Miss McCormick's diseration, though it aroued much discussion, did not create a sensation. Though she does not aim any criticism at the president by name, she does score the lack of attention to women's welcome at the freshmen meeting, where President Wheeler was the only speaker. Her article in part follows:

"Slowly but surely the fact is being forced upon our mind that the University of California is merely tolerating co-education. We attended the first University meeting of the semester and listened to a long and interesting address. But we didn't hear a word of welcome addressed to the women. While the men of the class were being welcomed and advised, the women were unwept, unhonored and unsung.

"We encounter difficulty in many of our classes. A few days ago a large number of women enrolled in an English course limited to fifteen. The professor's method of elimination was brief and simple. 'All men in the class may remain,' he announced. There is another English course given by a prominent member of the faculty, which is always very popular. Its doors are mysteriously closed to women in the second semester. The principle of ladies first has been lavishly applied—ladies are always first to leave the crowded course.

"As soon as a girl begins to comb her hair fashionably, the value of what is under her hair is questioned. A steady purpose is considered the companion of common-sense shoes and a lack of face powder."

OTHER GIRLS DISAGREE.

In regard to Miss McCormick's article Miss Elsie Lee, a prominent woman student at the State university, said:

"I certainly believe the women students are getting a square deal. I have never had cause to feel otherwise and as to President Wheeler's remarks at the last university meeting, I think he spoke generally. If he failed to laud the women students, it was merely an oversight and not an intentional slight."

When questioned as to the attitude of the English professors, Miss Lee emphatically denied ever seeing the women given the worst of the bargain in any of her classes.

"I have never found the women placed second in any of my English classes," stated Miss Lee, "and I have never so much as heard of the faculty showing a preference for the men of the university."

Miss Ruth Edinger, another well known woman student also expressed her views on the matter and was decidedly opposed to Miss McCormick's article.

"I have never heard of the women being merely tolerated at the university and I do not believe they were ever set on a lower level than the men in the minds of the faculty or of President Wheeler," declared Miss Edinger. "It is my opinion that the women have been treated the same as the men in college. I fail to remember that President Wheeler directed his remarks at the last university meeting solely to the male students. I certainly think that we are getting a square deal."

This first issue will be featured with a colored cover design by Miss Dorothy Edinger, and also artistic work by D. T. Carlisle, K. C. Watson, J. B. Harvey, E. M. Maslin and W. B. Garthwaite.

Rheumatism Easily Relieved By Cleansing the Blood

S. S. S. Gives Quick Relief by Toning Up the Blood

Yes, but how? A natural question. The answer is that you must cleanse your blood by stimulating it to healthy, vigorous action, so that it will throw off the germs and impurities that cause Rheumatism. The action of the wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., is to practically renew the life blood, give it vigor, stimulate the flow, making it throw out the germs and the poison impurities. The excruciating pains of Rheumatism, whether it is the shooting, stabbing Sciatica, the gripping agony of muscular Rheumatism, or aching arms and legs that break up sleep, will be entirely relieved by S. S. S. Don't use nostrums and drugs. Take the blood bath—Nature's blood tonic, S. S. S. Get it at any druggist, but insist upon S. S. S. Let us tell you about blood diseases. What Causes Tuberculosis

In the opinion of many medical authorities, tuberculosis is aided, if not actually caused, by a loss of lime from the system. "Where there is a decalcification, the lime salts must be supplied medicinally," says Dr. J. W. Carhart, of San Antonio, in the May, 1913, issue of "Medical Progress."

To supply these salts often is difficult, since in some forms they are not easily assimilable.

In Eckman's Alterative, however, calcium (lime) is so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be assimilated by the average person, and to this, in part, is due its success.

We make no boastful claims, but many cases of tuberculosis apparently have yielded to it. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try.

Sold by The Owl Drug Co. and leading druggists.

Canal Missionary Ill in Berkeley

Miss Emma Bade, Honored by Goethals, No Better

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—Little change for the better or worse was noticeable this morning in the condition of Miss Emma Bade, prominent in missionary, club and nursing work for many years, who is critically ill at her home at 2616 College avenue. Little hope for her recovery is entertained.

Professor William Frederick Bade, her brother, professor of Semitic and Sanscrit literature in the Pacific Theological Seminary, who is also ill, showed some improvement this morning. Dr. Clark Burnham is attending sister and brother.

Miss Bade went to the Canal Zone during the construction of the canal for the purpose of doing missionary work. She entered one of the government hospitals, where she was made head nurse, receiving officially the recognition of Colonel Goethals for her service. Previous to this Miss Bade was engaged in similar work in Pennsylvania.

TO TELL STORY OF FIRST POET LAUREATE

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—The story of the Poet Laureate, of how there came to be such an officer of the English state, of the picturesque happenings associated with the choice of an official court poet, and of his relation to sovereign, courtiers and people, will be told in a series of lectures at the University of California, beginning at 8 o'clock this evening, August 25, by Professor Edmund Kemper Broadus, head of the Department of English of the University of Alberta. Professor Broadus is to speak again on the same subject at 8 o'clock Wednesday and Thursday evenings, September 1 and 2.

Professor Broadus was one of the first men called to the faculty of this new Canadian University. A Doctor of Philosophy of Harvard University and a former student of the University of Chicago and of George Washington University, he was formerly head of the Department of English of the University of South Dakota, and taught also at one time in Alabama. He has been a frequent contributor of essays on literary themes to the "Atlantic Monthly," "The Nation," and the well-known Canadian periodical, "The University Magazine."

Beginning with some account of the relation of the poet to the state in ancient Rome, and of the bard to the chieftain and the troubadour to prince or baron, Professor Broadus will tell of the official beginning of the post of Poet Laureate in England with the appointment of Dryden. He will carry on the story down to the present day.

WOMAN SCIENTIST MAY SERVE CITY

Council Considers Appointment of Miss Laura Lamoureux as Bacteriologist ad Interim.

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—The city council has under consideration the appointment of Miss Laura Lamoureux to the position which the leave of absence granted Dr. Carl L. A. Schmidt, city bacteriologist, leaves vacant for a year. The position will be filled at the council meeting Friday.

Dr. Schmidt's leave of absence was granted yesterday to permit him to accept an offer from the Hooper Institute for Medical Research for investigations of the antigenic properties of proteins. A sum has been set aside for this purpose, and Dr. Schmidt, Dr. Frederick Gay and Dr. T. Brailsford Robertson named to conduct the investigations.

Miss Lamoureux was graduated from the University of California in the class of 1913 and resides in Oakland. For some time she has been Dr. Schmidt's chief assistant in the municipal laboratory.

The council received an objection from Carpenters' Brotherhood, No. 1155, to the employment by A. Field, contractor on the University avenue school, of men for less than the regular scale of $5 per day. According to the complaint, Field has been securing help through a San Francisco employment agency, thus making the applications of Berkeley men for positions useless and has also violated the terms of his contract with the city by paying less than the scale.

ALLEGES AGE LIMIT.

Representatives of the union who appeared before the council declared further that one applicant for work had been turned down because he was 43 years of age. They said it was explained to him that men 35 years of age and under were wanted, that he could have been selected, perhaps, if he were 40, but that 43 was too high. The council directed the city architect and city attorney to look into the charges to learn if Field's contract with the city had been violated.

Bids from different automobile agencies for an auto truck were received, ranging from $2750 to $5500. The following contractors bid, at sums ranging from $29,000 to $35,000, for the sewer in San Pablo avenue: William and Ed Schmidt, Michael Murphy, Chambers & Huffer, C. L. Gorrill, Michael Heafey, Burnham Company, Contra Costa Construction Company, Carnahan & Manford and Tibbetts Pacific Company. These bids, together with others offered for Oak street improvement and for lighter automobiles needed by the city, were referred to the departments concerned.

On recommendation of committee, the council refused to abolish the druggists' license. Orders were issued for the repair of the municipal wharf in preparation for the hauling of 12,000 tons of rock which is to be used on the University of California campus in the erection of Benjamin Ide Wheeler Hall.

EASING OF DIPLOMATIC TENSION HELPS STOCKS

By Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The easing of the diplomatic tension between Washington and Berlin resulted in a series of spectacular advances among war stocks during today's early trading.

Studebaker rose 13¼ to 117⅞; Willys-Overland 12¼ to 183. New York Air-Brake and General Motors gained 5 at 15[illegible] and 21 respectively, and Crucible Steel made a similar improvement at 5 75¾. U. S. Steel's rise at the opening was 2 points to 76, which was added to later. Steel was again the market leader in the sense that it served as a guide for the better known issues. At this morning's high level it had recovered all but a point of its recent 13-point decline.

Other industrials and unclassified shares particularly in war contracts rose 2 to 4 points, [illegible] Cuban-American Sugar at 124.

Railroads joined the rise later, the Pacifics showing especial strength.

MUNITION SALES HERE ARE RECENT

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—That a great part of Europe's enormous orders for arms and ammunition did not begin to move from the United States until comparatively recently was indicated by export figures issued today by the Department of Commerce.

The statistics, covering the twelve months ending with June, show that while exports of war supplies increased tremendously over the preceding year, the greater part of the increase—in some cases from one fifth to one third of the entire year's exports—left the United States in June.

The twelve months' period showed exports of explosives valued at $41,476,150 as against $6,272,197 in the preceding year. More than one-fourth of that total—$11,659,744—was shipped during June. Gunpowder showed exports of $3,234,549 in June compared with $3,091,542 for the year.

Sixty-two aeroplanes were exported in June as against 152 for the entire year. In the preceding year only 34 were shipped. Nearly eight times as many automobile trucks were exported in June as in the entire year ended June 30.

June 30, 1914, June exports of both passenger automobiles and trucks were valued at $13,364,800 and for the year at $60,354,635. In the preceding year they were $26,574,574.

Figures for barbed wire, harness and saddles showed similar export conditions.

Edison Putting New Battery in Submarine

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The installation of the new nickel batteries invented by Thomas A. Edison, by which it is hoped to prevent the escape of chlorine gas in submarines, is in progress on board the submarine K-1 at New York navy yard.

The batteries are being installed by an agent of Mr. Edison who was carefully guarded by employes of the yard. Chlorine gas is one of the greatest dangers of undersea boats, and many officers with them believe it caused the loss of the F-4 at Honolulu several months ago. The nickel batteries were designed by Mr. Edison to save the crews of the submarines from suffocating by gas, and if the batteries are as effective as it is hoped the United States navy will possess the first underwater craft in which the danger of chlorine is eliminated.

It will require about two weeks to install the batteries.

Sir Edward Grey to Reply to Chancellor

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Aug. 25, 5:27 p. m.—Sir Edward Grey, the foreign minister will issue a statement tonight which he has prepared in reply to the speech before the Reichstag last week of the German chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg.

The German chancellor was quoted as having told the Reichstag that Sir Edward said to the German Ambassador in London, when the latter was about to depart at the beginning of the war, that it might be possible for England at the conclusion of peace to render more valuable services to Germany than would have been the case had England remained neutral. The chancellor inferred England desired the friendship of a beaten and weakened Germany as a counter influence against powerful Russia.

MINING MARKET SUDDENLY HALTS

Trading Stops With a Suddenness That Puzzles Most Experienced Brokers.

The inconsistent character of the mining stock market, apparent for several weeks past, manifested itself again this morning when trading stopped with a jerk that puzzled the most experienced traders. A few hundred shares covered all transactions in the Goldfield and Tonopah lists and the Comstocks were far less active than yesterday, although prices were well sustained.

Caledonia was the feature, selling at 66c and later in demand at 62c. Union declined from 48c to 47c on sales of 500 shares. Con Virginia advanced from 12c to 14c and Sierra Nevada was steady at 20c. Jacket declined from 16c to 15c and Mexican was firm at 60c.

Morgan Mines again sold at 20c, but there was no bidding for Jumbo Extension or Atlanta. Tonopah Extension was a trifle stronger than yesterday, when the reduced dividend was announced. Bids of $2.27 were made for the stock. The best offer for Jim Butler was 18c and 55c was offered for West End.

Note—In the above tabulation of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart sounding. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign or dash (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given on the chart.

Cotton Drop Big
Loss Is Millions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—While American cotton exports during the fiscal year that ended June 30 decreased by only 739,003 bales, their value was $234,257,329 less than those of the preceding year, according to figures issued today by the Department of Commerce. The decrease was due to depressed prices compared with those of one year ago.

Despite an increase of 27,562 bales in June exports over June, 1914, the planter received only $15,844,362 as against $18,725,444 in June last year.

Exports to Great Britain, Spain and Italy showed material increases in quantity for the year. Direct exports to Germany, Austria and Belgium were negligible, and France and Japan showed material decreases.

All other Europe, which embraces the neutral countries except Spain, took 1,382,624 bales, valued at $60,492,889, in the fiscal year as against 94,864 bales, valued at $5,830,097, in 1914.

FRUIT MARKET IN HEALTHIER TONE

Incoming Stock Is Disposed of Without Piling Up On Commission Men.

Canteloupes advanced 10 cents today, owing to the light shipments that have been sent in by the growers since they lost profits on the heavier consignments of more than a week ago. As a result the market is in healthier condition, and the incoming stock is being disposed of without piling up on the hands of the commission men as a number of other commodities have, forcing yesterday the dumping of a quantity of various fruits and vegetables.

Grapes were also much firmer today, crates of seedless bringing from 75 to 90 cents with malagas at 65 to 85 cents. No tokays were in evidence, and with the exception of blacks (Rose Perus) which did not seem very popular, the incoming shipments sold to the trade early.

Blackberries were also scarcer with the result that chests brought from $2.50 to $3.50, a decided improvement which did not effect, however, the strawberry quotations. A considerable supply of both black and white figs of mediocre quality were offered, selling at about the same prices as yesterday. No nectarines came in, but the market fruit was supplemented in another direction by the arrivals of large shipments of bananas and pineapples from Honolulu. Few cars of eastern bananas are now coming in as the growers find it a losing proposition at present when other fruits on the California markets are selling so cheaply.

The only variation in vegetable prices was a slight drop in San Leandro tomatoes which were selling at 35 to 65 cents per lug box and finding inadequate sale at that. Business on the whole was inactive along the street.

FOREIGN 'CHANGE HAS BAD SLUMP

French Money Makes New Low Record. Despite $20,000,000 Loan.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—French money today was worth less than yesterday in foreign exchange markets, notwithstanding the establishment here of a $20,000,000 credit loan to the French government, announced after the close of the market yesterday. Two factors, it was said, made this so—the establishment of the loan already had been discounted, having been in negotiation for two months and the sum loaned was too small a fraction of the total amount due for American supplies to the warring nations of Europe to bring about anything approaching an equilibrium of rates.

The rate on francs was quoted today at 5.95. Yesterday a dollar purchased 5.82 francs. Sterling was heading downward today at 4.65¾; lires were up a [illegible] which have remained stationary at or around $1 during the recent slump, made a new low record. They dropped to 90¼. These figures, it was asserted, represented little more than quotations as hardly any dealings were recorded.

N. C. O. SALE RUMORED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The presence in California of a group of Eastern officials of the Nevada-California-Oregon Railway and their recent trip over the line have revived in railroad circles active discussion as to the probability of a forthcoming sale of the road. Charles H. Moran of New York, president of the company, is now in Modoc county at the head of a party who have just made a careful inspection of the property.

WINS VICTORY FOR OUSTED EMPLOYES

Attorney for Hus and Zimmerman Shows "Ministerial" Means "Executive."

C. A. Beardsley, former chief deputy city attorney, and now representing the civil service employes who were removed from office by the new city administration through the abolition of their positions, scored a victory over Deputy City Attorney W. H. O'Brien, representing City Attorney Paul C. Morf, before the Civil Service Board last night.

Beardsley appeared in the interests of F. L. M. Hus and Louis Zimmerman, who were recently discharged as clerks in the office of the city clerk, and their places filled by W. W. Chappell and A. W. Wilkinson. Hus and Zimmerman appealed to the Civil Service Commission for a ruling.

The first hearing was held a week ago, at which time O'Brien advanced the contention that the city clerk is an appointee and employe of the council, and that the clerks in his office, being employed in ministerial capacities, were not placed under civil service rules by charter provision, as their duties are purely ministerial as opposed to executive.

Beardsley last night satisfied the two members of the board present—President Roscoe D. Jones and Irving C. Lewis—that the word ministerial meant the same, legally, to a smaller degree, that does the word executive. No action was taken on the technical victory, the board putting the matter over for one week for decision.

"The government of this land, from the Federal down to the smallest village," Beardsley said, "is built up on three cardinal principles—executive, legislative and judicial. All men and women who work for the government, whether it is Federal, state or municipal, must be classified under one of these heads. Because courts may have ruled that some positions were ministerial as opposed to being of the judiciary or the legislative, does not necessarily mean that the word signified anything other than executive. Ministerial merely means, within a limit, or, on a smaller scale, the word executive."

O'Brien refused to concede the point, but Jones and Lewis agreed with the views of Beardsley.

The request of the Central Labor Council that laborers in the city's employ receive a minimum wage of $3 a day, which the council yesterday referred to the Civil Service Board, was referred by that body to Efficiency Expert Werdle P. Smith for investigation and report. The members declared themselves unable to comply with the request of the City Council that immediate action be taken and a report and recommendation made to that body today.

The application of Maud M. Newcomb, junior stenographer in the park department, that her salary be increased from $780 a year to $900, was continued for a month. The board approved a thirty-day leave of absence for M. Huber, senior clerk in the electrical department.

Two civil service examinations were ordered held in the near future. They will be for the office of manager of the municipal wood yard, now held by W. S. Goodrich, and for assistant operator of the fire alarm station, to which position Leslie C. Carpenter has been temporarily appointed. The board classified Goodrich's position as being in the municipal supervising service.

TAFT TO ADDRESS BAR ASSOCIATION

Secrecy as to Subject of ex-President's Speech for Tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—With former President William Howard Taft as speaker and guest of honor, the California Bar Association will tonight close "Lawyers' Day," the last day of its big convention, with one of the biggest banquets in the history of the organization.

Ex-President Taft's topic for the evening has been guarded as a close secret, but President Robert M. Fitzgerald, who will act as toastmaster, promises that it will be of special interest to the lawyers of California.

The festivities of Lawyers' Day started early this morning with an excursion about the bay, followed by lunch at Old Faithful Inn.

The exposition bronze medal was presented to President Fitzgerald of Oakland at this part of the day's festivities.

Eugene Daney of San Diego is to be the new president of the Bar Association, being elected last night. President R. M. Fitzgerald of Oakland, retires at the end of the convention.

Other officers elected by the attorneys include the following:

President, Frank H. Short, Fresno; A. E. Bolton, San Francisco; Oscar C. Meller, Los Angeles; treasurer, H. C. Wyckoff, Watsonville; secretary, T. W. Robinson, Los Angeles; executive committee, Eugene Daney, San Diego; Robert M. Fitzgerald, Oakland; T. W. Robinson, Los Angeles; H. C. Wyckoff, Watsonville; ex-officio members, J. P. Chandler, Los Angeles; Henry Eickhoff, San Francisco; Sam Ferry Smith, San Diego; A. F. Jones, Oroville; C. E. McLaughlin, Sacramento.

Attorney E. J. Emmons of Bakersfield can practice law throughout the state, as far as the California Bar Association is concerned.

Emmons is a member of the "old" Bar Association of Kern county, which has forty-one members. McCowan is a member of it, but heads the "new" association, with an enrollment of eleven members.

It was only a few years ago that Emmons was indicted, tried and convicted for soliciting and accepting a bribe, while a member of the State Legislature. After serving a term in the state penitentiary Emmons went to Bakersfield to practice law.

There are fifty-six attorneys in Kern county. The "old" bar association consists of forty-one members. They are willing to permit Emmons to practice in their midst. The "new" association, headed by McCowan, eleven in number, is opposed to Emmons, intimating that because of his prison record he should be disbarred.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, champion of the woman's cause in business and the professions, found no difficulty in securing the adoption of her resolution by the California Bar Association, asking the American Bar Association to amend its constitution and rules that women may be declared eligible to membership.

GOVERNOR OBJECTS TO LACK OF POWER

Hammond of Minnesota Says Efficiency Is Lost by Division.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 25.—Governor Winfield S. Hammond of Minnesota, who addressed the Governors' conference here today on "Efficiency and Economy in State Government," said that one reason for the present lack of efficiency was that, in effect, most states have several governors instead of one. Enumerating the various state commissions and boards which have come into being as a part of the executive department of a state administration, he said:

"There is little or no co-ordination between these various bodies. Inspectors, examiners, investigators and employes of these various governing bodies, busy in the performance of their duties, are traveling over the state, some times several of them descending at the same time upon a little hamlet of two or three hundred inhabitants, where all examinations and investigations for all the state departments could be done by an able-bodied man in half a day. Salaries and traveling expenses are continually increasing, while in political campaigns the cry for economy goes merrily on.

"'Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. The average citizen has come to the same conclusion. The board system tends to delay and inefficiency. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. Boards are necessary for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.'

COUNTY HAS SMALLEST AREA OF UNCLAIMED LAND

Alameda county has the smallest area of school land unclaimed of any county in the state and San Bernardino county has the greatest, according to figures compiled by the surveyor general at Sacramento.

In San Bernardino county there are 237,747 acres unsold but most of the land is desert and unfit for cultivation.

An authentic list will be issued by the surveyor-general next month showing the exact amounts of unsold land in the different counties.

"FRAMERS OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE U.S.A." NO. 1

George Washington—"Father of His Country"

EVERY AMERICAN knows that without "Immortal Washington our National Independence would have been impossible. Few, however, know that the greatest battle of Washington's life was fought to secure for his countrymen the Constitution of the United States. Almost immediately after the Revolution it seemed that all the great sacrifice of blood and treasure had been in vain. The original thirteen states refused to work in harmony, either in spirit or in law. The new Republic was tottering to its foundations. At this critical period in American history the most brilliant men of each state met in convention and unanimously elected Washington as President—undoubtedly the most momentous gathering of the kind the world has ever known. Here he displayed as great ability as law-maker as he had as a warrior. For months the Fathers of the Republic labored, and finally adopted our present National Law, which forever guarantees Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. This was in 1787. Seventy years later Anheuser-Busch established their great institution upon the tenets of the Federal law which Washington did so much to create. Like all of the great men of his time, he was a moderate user of good old barley brews. For three generations Anheuser-Busch have brewed honest malt and hop beers. To-day 7500 people are daily employed to keep pace with the ever-increasing public demand. The great popularity of their famous brand—BUDWEISER—due to quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, has made its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles.
